'DEADLINE' DAY DAWNS PEACEFULLY

By REINHOLD ENSE

BERLIN (AP)—The day the Soviets once set for the Western Allies to get out of West Berlin dawned today with no trouble likely.

Premier Nikita Khrushchev has postponed the deadline indefinitely. The Soviet Embassy in East Berlin assured the West that the Kremlin wouldn't renege.

The U.S. Army said it planned no special alert for American troops in West Berlin.

But all the talk of May 27 apparently acted as a magnet for tourists. West Berlin was thronged with a record number of foreign visitors.

"I must disappoint those who expect to get bravery medals," said Mayor Willy Brandt smilingly. "May 27 will be like any other day."

Six months ago today—on Nov. 27—the Soviet Premier called for an end to the World War II occupation of Berlin and withdrawal of the Allied military garrisons from West Berlin. He said that in six months the Soviets would give East Germany's Communist regime control over Allied military traffic between West Germany and the Communist-surrounded Western half of the city.

The East Germans have controlled civilian traffic to and from Berlin since 1955.

The Western Allies, who refuse to recognize or deal with the East German government, rejected Khrushchev's demand. There was talk of an armed convoy or a new airlift to challenge any transfer of traffic control to the East Germans. Fear of war was widespread.

The fears subsided when the West and the Soviets agreed to negotiate. Khrushchev said he wouldn't try to alter Berlin's status while negotiations were in progress.

Godfrey Renews Plea To Step Up Study of Cancer

WASHINGTON (AP)—Arthur Godfrey, who recently underwent surgery for lung cancer, asked today for a stepped-up national program of cancer research.

"Surely, a crash program of cancer research is as important today to America as similar projects now being pursued by nuclear fission, missiles and space scientists," the television and radio entertainer said.

Godfrey, in a request prepared for Congress, made it clear that "I ask this in the interests of millions of our fellow Americans, not for myself."

Godfrey made his plea in a letter to Sen. Eister Hill (D-Ala.), chairman of a Senate Appropriations subcommittee.

SNARK GUIDED MISSILE

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—A Snark guided missile was launched Tuesday night on an intercontinental range flight, its final tuneup before assignment for troop use. The Snark is this nation's first weapon capable of delivering a nuclear package inter-continental range.

Although still stunned and sorrowful over the unexpected death of Warren County State Assemblyman Allen M. Gibson, who also served as chairman of the county Republican committee, many are speculating as to what the future holds politically for this GOP stronghold.

Unofficial comments indicate uncertainty as to who might be singled out to serve in the assembly as Warren county's representative, although several possibilities have been mentioned at random.

A Times-Mirror reporter, in a telephone interview this morning, with Joseph J. Kelley, Jr., of the Legislative Service Bureau of the State Chamber building at Harrisburg, established that the election code, section 623, states that the Speaker of the House, at pre-

$2,200 in Gems Given Away in Old Shoes

SAN ANSELMO, Calif. (AP)—Hazel Smith Johnson, 55, said today she gave her shoes to charity but she didn't mean to include her jewels.

She asked police to help her recover a diamond bracelet, a diamond bar pin and a diamond ring. She explained she stuffed her jewelry in old shoes for hiding. The items in question disappeared with a lot of shoes she gave to a charitable organization.

She said the missing jewelry was appraised at $2,200.

Chandler Looks Like Loser In Kentucky Voting

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Bert T. Combs had the door almost closed on Gov. A. B. Chandler's 1960 presidential hopes today by piling up a big lead for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination.

Chandler's choice, Lt. Gov. Harry Lee Waterfield, was trailing by 31,842 votes with nearly half of the state's 3,784 precincts tabulated.

Waterfield said it was still a race, claiming he was ahead in the rural areas in Tuesday's election. Few ballots had been counted in his home area in extreme western Kentucky.

Offsetting this, however, was the fact that tabulations were equally slow in Combs' native eastern Kentucky hills.

It was one of the bitterest Democratic primaries in years.

The Republicans chose former U.S. Rep. John Robison as their standard bearer in the November general election.

Chandler, ineligible by law to succeed himself, had counted on Waterfield to deliver him Kentucky's 30 votes at the Democratic presidential convention next year.

But a Combs victory could throw the votes behind Sen. Lyndon Johnson of Texas, a close friend of former Sen. Earle C. Clements, chief sponsor of Combs.

Father and Three Tots Are Drowning Victims

WINTER HAVEN, Fla. (AP)—Two men rescued a mother and three of her six children from Lake Marian Tuesday but the father and three other children drowned.

Raymond Adolphus Miller, 31, had taken his family on a late afternoon fishing trip when waves capsized their 12-foot boat.

Drowned with Miller were LeRoy, 4, Shirley Jo, 7, and Andy Wallace, 9.

Mrs. Miller and the other children—Jimmy, 8, Donnie, 6, and Randall, 2—were brought ashore by O. L. Williams and R. J. Nasworthy, who noticed the boat in trouble while working on a dredge at the lake on the outskirts of this central Florida city.

The writ of election is issued to the county election board and the Secretary of the Commonwealth, the special election to be held not less than thirty days after issuance of the writ.

The Harrisburg authority stated that it has been the practice in the Capital to refrain from calling for special elections due to the high cost of same. Mr. Kelley also pointed out that when the majority margin is comfortable, the seat in the House may be left vacant, until a regular election rolls around. However, in the case of Representative Granville Jones, Philadelphia Democrat,

Accidentally Backs Car Over Girl Friend

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A 23-year-old Pittsburgh man told police today he accidentally backed his auto over his girl friend. She died shortly after admittance to Mercy Hospital.

Dan D. Flaherty told police the accident occurred in Schenley Park about 5:30 a. m. The girl was identified by police as Lorraine Griffith, about 20. Flaherty was quoted as saying Miss Griffith stepped out of his auto and that he thought she had left the park when he backed his car. He said he picked her up and rushed her to Mercy Hospital.

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Senate today scheduled an unusual Thursday session to give final approval to gasoline taxes due to expire at midnight Sunday and 122½ million dollars in stop-gap appropriations.

Although the action could help clear up the complicated tax picture, the one per cent realty transfer tax—also due to expire at midnight Sunday—still cannot be finally approved until the House meets. The next session of the House is scheduled for Monday.

Two cents of the five-cent-a-gallon tax on gasoline is due to expire at the end of the biennium Sunday. The two-cent levy is estimated to bring in about $15 million dollars during the coming biennium. The real estate transfer tax is due to bring in about $8 million during the two-year period.

After scheduling the additional session of the Senate, Sen. James

MORE DISTRESSING NEWS FOR SENATOR

Senator Leroy Chapman, while in Philadelphia, was advised of the death today of Russell B. Stoner, executive secretary of the Senate Appropriations Committee, at his home in Hummelstown. Mr. Stoner, is well known to many area residents, having been a frequent visitor to the locale. He was 72. Senator Chapman returned to Harrisburg upon receiving the news prior to coming back to Warren to attend funeral services for his colleague, the Hon. Allen M. Gibson.

Cutting Down Of Housing - Airport Spending Urged

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congressional Democratic leaders reportedly are urging reluctant colleagues to pare down housing and airport spending bills. They want to avoid presidential vetoes.

Wrapped up in these two measures is the core of the political controversy between the majority of Democrats and President Eisenhower-budget balancing.

The two bills now are before Senate-House conference committees.

Democrats from the big cities particularly want Congress to enact large-scale housing and airport programs to which they can point in their 1960 re-election races. If Eisenhower vetoes these bills and his action is sustained, these Democrats think Republican candidates will suffer.

On the other hand, Speaker of the House Sam Rayburn (D-Tex) and Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas were reported arguing that the Republicans thus far have developed budget balancing as the only major issue for 1960.

Goodell, Chautauqua County GOP chairman, drew about twice as many votes as his Democratic opponent, Robert E. McCaffery, in the 43rd District, which is predominantly Republican.

The turnout of about 44,500 was half that for a regular congressional election.

Complete unofficial returns gave Goodell 27,779 votes to 14,309 for McCaffery. The Liberal party candidate, John R. Steinbroner, 41, of Salamanca, drew 522 votes.

Goodell will fill the unexpired part of Rep. Reed's term, which runs until Dec. 31, 1960. Reed died in February after serving 40 years in the House.

JAMESTOWN, N. Y. (AP)—Charles E. Goodell, 33, a Republican was chosen to succeed the late Rep. Daniel A. Reed in Congress in a special election Tuesday.

The House Foreign Affairs Committee provided the change of emphasis as it approved late Tuesday a foreign aid authorization bill cut $265,800,000 below President Eisenhower's request for $3,350,000,000.

The measure, subject to both House and Senate action, raised by 100 million dollars Eisenhower's proposed 700-million-dollar allocation for loans to help develop backward countries.

Crowds Throng Cathedral To Pay Respect to Dulles

By FRANCES LEWINE

WASHINGTON (AP)—A seven-year old boy stood on tiptoe to sign the condolence book in the chapel where John Foster Dulles' body lay in state today in a closed, flag-draped casket.

His grandmother said they were great admirers of Dulles, whom they had seen and heard only through television and radio.

They were a sample of hundreds who carefully wrote their names in the book as a steady file of men, women and children came to pay tribute to a great man.

A little Negro woman almost seemed disappointed as she asked: "Are they going to open the casket?" A stern military guard shook his head.

Most of those who came to the chapel in style Bethlehem chapel, oldest wing of Washington National Cathedral, knew Dulles as a

Armored Car In Denver Looted By Clever Thieves

DENVER (AP)—A $5,000 reward offer spurred officers searching today for two swift thieves who looted an unattended armored car of $165,540 Tuesday.

The theft took less than a minute.

One man—described by the lone woman witness as about 45 and short and fat—opened the locked car with a key. He pitched four sacks of currency into a stolen car driven by an accomplice.

They sped away before Maude Moore, the only witness, could get a good description. The car was found abandoned in a shopping center a few blocks away.

The Amored Motors Service car was raided in a parking lot outside the Jefferson County Bank in suburban Lakewood. The reward for recovery of the money, covered by insurance, was posted by Amored Motors Service.

Officers said they were convinced the thieves used a key because of the speed of the raid and the recovery of a broken key chain at the scene.

Herter said the Geneva East-West talks have "made only small progress."

"It is my hope that in the negotiating sessions that lie ahead sufficient progress can be made to justify the United States in going to a summit conference," he said.

Lloyd steered clear of world politics.

"It is sad that the occasion for this visit to Washington should be the funeral of my friend and colleague, John Foster Dulles," he said.

Couve de Murville expressed sorrow on his own part and that of his government. He said his tribute will be paid "in the spirit of that long friendship which unites France and the United States, and to the strengthening of which the late secretary of state contributed so much."

Brother of Castro Survives Plane Crash

By ROBERT BERRELLEZ

HAVANA (AP)—Paul Castro, prime minister Fidel Castro's flamboyant younger brother, was found safe today after walking away from a plane crash in the swamps of south central Cuba.

Raul and his crew of three airmen were reported in good spirits. They crashed Tuesday during an aerial search mission.

The leftward-leaning Raul, commander-in-chief of Cuba's armed forces and heir-designate to succeed Fidel, plunked down in a swampy marsh in the Ensenada de la broa area south of Cienega Zapata.

The four abandoned their plane and headed for the coast along the bank of the Hatiguero River. Peasants helped guide them out of the swamps.

GROMYKO HAS PRAISE FOR HIS OLD ADVERSARY AT THE CONFERENCE TABLE

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower and Secretary of State Christian A. Herter will discuss the Geneva conference negotiations with the foreign ministers of Russia, Britain and France.

The President and Herter today arranged a White House conference for 10:30 a. m. EDT, Thursday.

They will meet with the Soviet Union's Andrei Gromyko, Britain's Selwyn Lloyd and France's Maurice Couve de Murville. Herter and the other three foreign ministers flew to Washington from Geneva for the funeral of John Foster Dulles today.

Western diplomats had seen the visit as an opportunity for such a conference as the foreign ministers arrived at the airport.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The world's chiefs of diplomacy, including Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko, streamed into Washington today for the funeral of John Foster Dulles.

Western diplomats in the airport reception group saw in the visit of tribute an opportunity for a session with President Eisenhower which could have great significance in the cold war.

They understood the President would entertain all the visiting dignitaries at a White House dinner.

First of today's contingent was Gromyko, full of praise for Dulles, his old adversary at the conference table. He described the former secretary of state, dead of cancer at 71, as "an outstanding diplomat."

Gromyko, who made the trip from Geneva by commercial airliner, flew in from New York.

A little over half an hour behind him U. S. Secretary of State Christian A. Herter flew in by Military Air Transport plane with British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd and French Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville as passengers.

Herter said the Geneva East-West talks have "made only small progress."

"It is my hope that in the negotiating sessions that lie ahead sufficient progress can be made to justify the United States in going to a summit conference," he said.

Three-Year-Old Is Rescued From Jaws of Big Bear

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. (AP)—A 3-year-old boy was rescued from the jaws of a 250-pound bear at the City Zoo Tuesday by a teenager who jammed a glowing cigarette against the bear's nose.

The animal released its grip on the hand of Russell Vandam.

The boy had crawled under a guard rail and thrust his hand through a two-inch mesh screen into the bear's cage.

Thomas Cole, 19, heard the boy's mother, Mrs. Melvin J. Vandam, scream. He rushed to the cage and found her trying to pull her son's hand free. Cole reached through the screen and burned the bear's tender nose.

Russell was treated at a hospital. His condition was reported good today.

His lying in state was an added stop on a Washington tour for several busloads of high school students.

But the outpouring was the largest the cathedral had seen since President Woodrow Wilson's funeral in 1924, according to verges Edward Marr. The count Tuesday night had passed 10,000.

The Episcopal cathedral, an imposing structure on a hilltop not far from many of the embassies in Washington, was first envisioned by George Washington. It is dedicated to promote religion, education and charity and may be used by various denominations.

Dulles himself was a lay Presbyterian leader and his funeral was to be performed according to Presbyterian rites.

Complicated Tax Picture Is Becoming More Confusing

HARRISBURG (AP)—Pennsylvania's already complicated tax picture will become more complicated on Monday by a unique situation for which Justice Department officials were unable to find a precedent.

On Sunday midnight, two cents of the five-cents-a-gallon tax on gasoline and the one per cent realty transfer tax will expire. Both levies are due for reenactment, but not until sometime Monday.

It will mean, theoretically at least, that for a few hours on Monday Pennsylvania motorists and home buyers will be in a world of reduced taxation. It is unlikely, however, that any of them will benefit.

Atty. Gen. Anne X. Alpern said Tuesday that she interprets the law to mean any act signed on June 1 is effective for the entire day. Thus, people won't be able to buy gasoline two cents a gallon cheaper, or purchase a house without paying the transfer tax.

The Legislature expects to reenact the taxes Monday afternoon and Gov. Lawrence will sign them as soon as the legislation reaches his desk.

"We don't recognize such a thing as a fractional day," said Miss Alpern. "It is our interpretation that when the governor signs the bill June 1, it is effective for the entire day."

Spokesman for the Associated Petroleum Industries and the Pennsylvania Realtors Assn. said they do not plan to challenge the validity of Miss Alpern's opinion.

Outbreak of Stormy Weather Lashes Part of the Nation

By The Associated Press

Another outbreak of stormy weather lashed the central part of the country Tuesday night and more showers and possible storms appeared in prospect today.

Tornadoes struck areas in five states, injuring at least nine persons and destroying or damaging several homes. The twisters which skipped across areas in southern Oklahoma and northwestern Wisconsin were the worst. Smaller tornadoes struck sections of Indiana, central Kansas and in suburban areas northwest of Chicago. No injuries were reported.

The tornadic storms were part of a wet belt extending from Oklahoma northeast through the middle Mississippi Valley into the Great Lakes.

Three twisters raked northwestern Wisconsin. One pounded the Fairchild area, injuring one person. Another struck 6 miles south at Trempealeau, while a third flattened a grain and storage shed near Eau Claire.

Heavy rains fell throughout the storm belt.

Thunderstorms also erupted in the Gulf Coast states northward into Tennessee, with heaviest falls in northern Alabama.

Cool air from Canada extended southward through the Dakotas into northwest Minnesota and Nebraska and was expected to reach into the great lakes region during the day.

Half of Population in State Has Blue Cross Protection

More than half—50.14 per cent—of the population of Pennsylvania is enrolled for Blue Cross protection, according to a report for 1958 issued by the Blue Cross Commission and released by the Hospital Service Association—the Blue Cross Plan serving 29 Western Pennsylvania counties.

The report revealed that five Blue Cross Plans in Pennsylvania cover 5,556,012 subscribers. The Blue Cross Plan in Western Pennsylvania, which had an enrollment of 1,906,673 subscribers at the end of 1958, ranks as the nation's seventh largest Plan.

The Blue Cross Commission, national planning and coordinating agency for 83 non-profit hospital service Plans approved by the American Hospital Association, also reported that Blue Cross membership in North America totals more than 55,880,000 subscribers. This represents a gain during 1958 of 506,420 subscribers, the Commission stated.

Nearly 31 per cent of the United States population has Blue Cross protection against hospital costs, while 20 per cent of the population of Canada is protected by four Plans serving that country. In Puerto Rico, Blue Cross subscribers comprise about five per cent of the island's population.

During 1958, according to the Report, Blue Cross Plans paid $1,337,392,014 to hospitals for the care subscribers required, or an average return of $6.59 cents of every subscriber dollar received. This payment—the largest in Blue Cross history—is nearly $150 million more than was paid in 1957.

Hospital benefits were needed by 10,008,504 Blue Cross subscribers during 1958, the Commission reported, for which $7,530,459 days of hospital care were provided.

BUSINESS BRIEFS

Bethpage, N.Y. (AP) — Grumman Aircraft & Engineering Corp.'s new turboprop executive transport plane, the Gulfstream, has been certified by the federal aviation agency.

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Lear Inc. backlog climbed to a record $79,800,000 April 30, James L. Anast, president, said. This compares with $71,900,000 at the start of 1959 and about $61,000,000 on April 30, 1958.

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Budd Co. reported receiving a contract from the Thiokol Chemical Corp.

Utah Division to make solid propellant rocket engine cases for the Minuteman missile. The size of the contract was not disclosed.

Budd said its engineers have developed a method of fabricating rocket engine cases using a new high alloy steel in accord with Thiokol's design.

NEW YORK (AP) — Domestic air freight revenues of the Flying Tiger Line for April totaled $1,190,064, a gain of 27.1 percent over the same month last year, John L. Higgins, vice president, said. The cumulative gain for the first four months of 1959, compared to a year ago, was 36.2 percent.

Distribution of New Phone Books Starts Thursday

Distribution of new telephone directories starts here Thursday and is expected to be completed by next Thursday, it was announced by Robert E. Anstadt, local manager of the Bell Telephone Company of Pennsylvania.

The new directory lists the new two-letter - five - figure Randolph telephone numbers which will replace present Warren numbers on Sunday, June 7, when dial service is established here, Anstadt said. At that time, Randolph (Warren) telephone customers will make all local calls by dialing the first two letters of the new central office name, then the five figures of the desired number, he said.

Approximately 15,700 copies of the new telephone directory will be mailed to customers in this general area, Anstadt added. This is an increase of 450 over last year's distribution.

The gray-covered book contains approximately 14,000 alphabetical listings, an increase of 500 over last year. More than 3,700 classified listings of business and professional customers are shown in the Yellow Pages, the manager stated.

WATER AS AN ASSET

An editorial from the Salamanca Republican press: Increasing appreciation of the value of water is one of the signs of the times. It is being manifested all over the country. In the West dams to impound the runoff and conserve it for irrigating farm lands, and for community use, are getting much attention. In mid-continent, the amount of water to be allocated to the Chicago drainage canal is a subject of heated debate. Now the Warren, Pa., Chamber of Commerce is stressing the value and importance of the water flowing down the valley of the Allegheny.

A committee of the Warren Chamber says the Conewango Valley Diversion project advocated by a consulting engineer for the Seneca Nation of Indians would "take a valuable natural resource away from the rightful owners of this water, the Allegheny Valley, and give it to a competitive industrial center." The intended function of the Conewango project, says the committee, "is to drain off the waters of the Allegheny and deliver them to Lake Erie." This, it continues, "could be an implement by which the lifeblood of our industrial-development future would be drawn off to support an already heavily industrialized community."

Pennsylvania's claim to all the waters flowing down the Allegheny may be subject to challenge. A considerable part of the water in the river comes from streams draining watersheds in New York State. These watersheds are large, and the runoff makes very sizable streams of the Ischua (or Olean) creek, the Great Valley creek, Little Valley creek, Sawmill Run, Sunfish, Red House, Quaker Run, and others.

Regardless of the legitimacy of Pennsylvania's claim to proprietorship over the water from these watersheds, the activity of the Warren Chamber is evidence of increasing realization of the important part that water plays in the United States—as well as in the Nile valley and elsewhere.

Visitors making annual pilgrimages to Warren's two cemeteries will find that they are both in wonderful condition for the Memorial Day crowds. The unusually wet spring, although creating a difficult situation for the sextons, served to spur the grass and shrubbery and they were never more attractive.

Area shoppers should keep in mind that most retail stores will be closed all day Saturday, due to the holiday.

The high regard in which the late Assemblyman Allen M. Gibson was held among his associates at the Capital is reflected in the large number of sympathy telegrams that are being received at the home.

WORLD TODAY

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Big Four foreign ministers are taking a two-day break in their Geneva conference. It's a break for everyone else, too.

There have been a number of foreign ministers meetings since the war but none more boring than this one has been so far.

Three weeks of talks and the result is nothing. It's been diplomacy in a goldfish bowl—with amplifiers.

More than 100 aides surrounded the foreign ministers of the United States, Britain, France and the Soviet Union at their meetings in the Palace of Nations.

Then the press officers of the Big Four reported on what was said. Even when the ministers entertained one another at night their conversations were reported.

This would have been fine if they had had something new to say. But after each had stated his position, they spent the rest of the time repeating themselves.

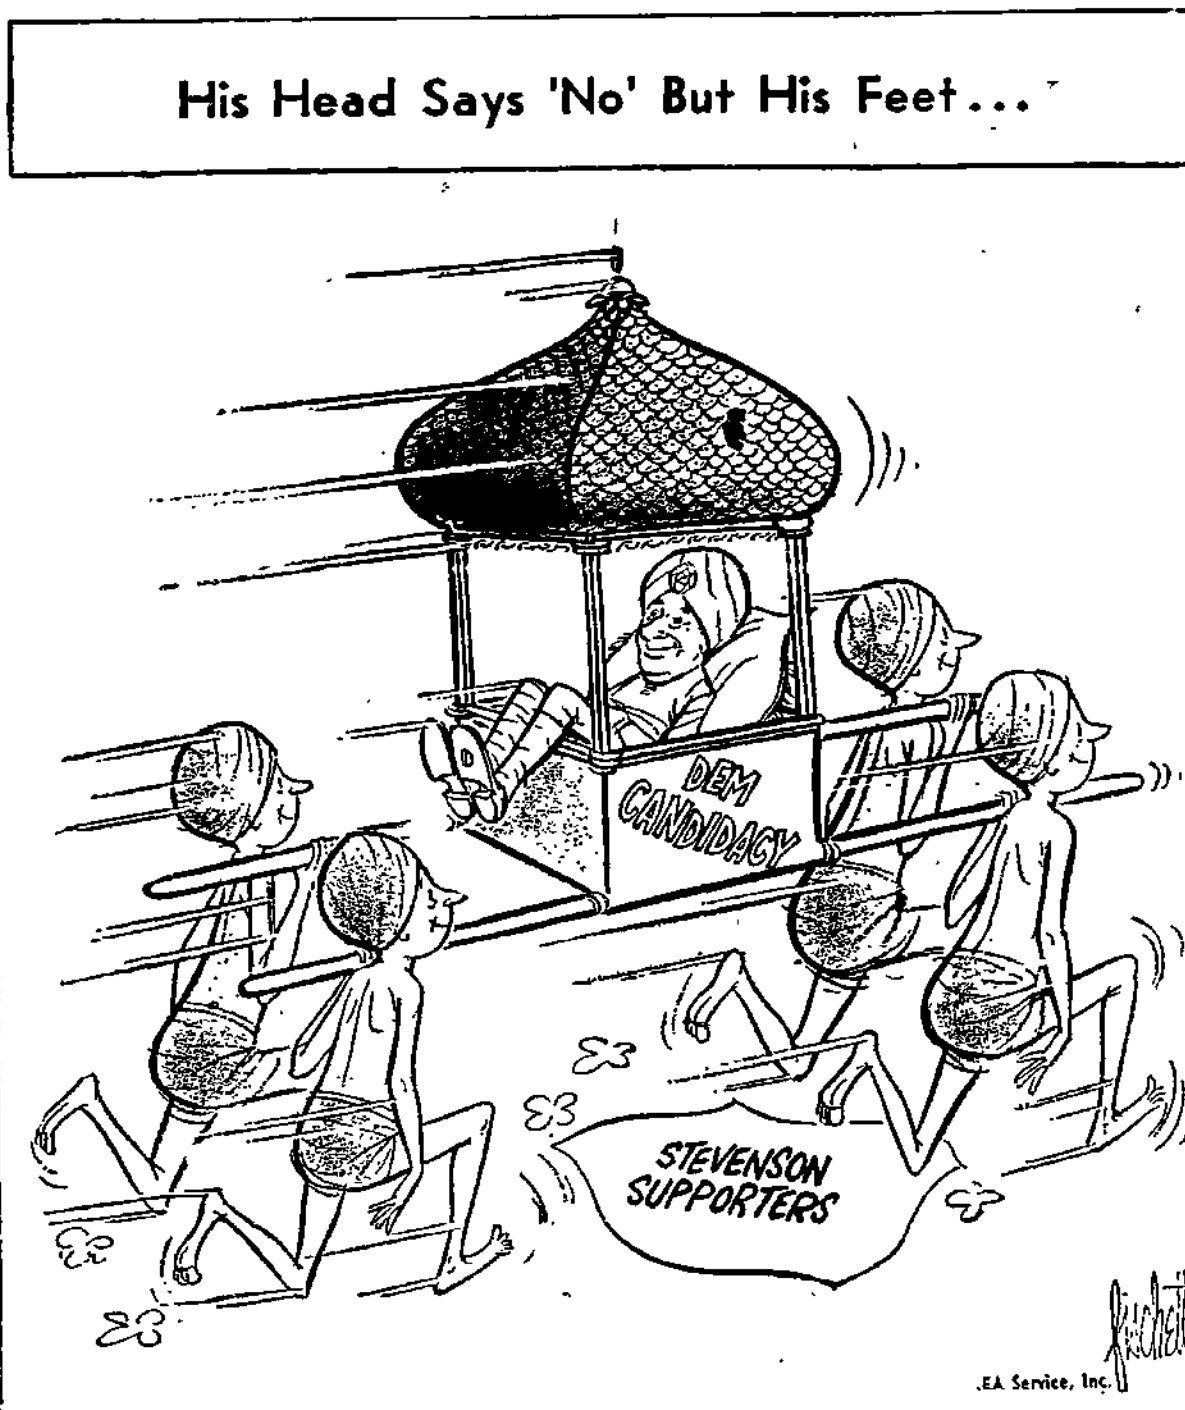

Nobody moved an inch. Nothing was gained. Nothing was lost, except time.

All four ministers played the unending iron man role—a pose that seemed clearly intended for propaganda but not for serious negotiating—with public avowals of where they stood and how they couldn't be moved.

Thought for Today

For since the beginning of the world men have not heard, nor perceived by the ear, neither hath the eye seen, O God, beside thee, what he hath prepared for him that waiteth for him.—Isaiah 64:4.

Dreams cannot picture a world so fair; sorrow and death may not enter there.—Mrs. Felicia Hemans.

Here and There

In connection with an article elsewhere in this issue advising that the distribution of the new telephone directories starts Thursday, listing the new two-letter-five figure RAndolph phone numbers which will replace the present Warren numbers Sunday, June 7, when dial service is established here, the following reprinted from the Warren Weekly Mirror of May 27, 1899, sixty years ago today should make interesting reading: "Mr. P. H. Adams, president of the Warren Telephone and Telegraph Company was here Tuesday, preparatory to beginning operations upon the Warren exchange. Although he is much engaged in installing independent telephone exchanges in other places, he expects to begin operations here within ten days with a sufficient force of men to crowd the work to completion. The majority of telephone subscribers in Warren sanction an independent service and await its induction with interest. During the past winter Mr. Adams has been largely engaged in New Castle, where he purchased an independent exchange with about 300 subscribers. Under the new management over 600 are now using the service and the number is rapidly increasing. Mr. Adams is at present dividing his attention between Warren, Bradford and Jamestown. His long distance line, which is to extend between McKean and Beaver counties, is about completed. Arrangements have been completed whereby long distance connections may be obtained through other independent lines, assuring subscribers direct and satisfactory communication. Subscribers to the Warren service may soon expect a satisfactory, independent and obliging telephone service. Mr. Adams departed for Jamestown Tuesday, but will return to Warren shortly and renew his numerous acquaintances."

A "traffic item" of sixty years ago of interest to present-day readers says: "At nine o'clock, Wednesday Car No. 6, running on the North Warren

No Lack of Cooks Dipping Into Labor Reform Broth

By PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON (NEA)—Labor reform legislation proposals before the 86th Congress have now been thrown into such a complete state of confusion that no new law at all may be passed this year, though both parties want it.

Both management and union labor spokesmen are accusing each other of trying to sabotage new labor bills. The charge against management is that by killing the Senate-passed Kennedy-Ervin bill now before the House Labor Committee, there might be worse chaos in the labor situation. That would improve the chances for getting a tougher labor reform law next year.

The charge against the union leaders is that they would rather have no new legislation at all than a reform bill which would tighten restrictions on their operations.

ONE INTERPRETATION OF KENNEDY-ERVIN bill backers is that if both management and labor leaders are against it, only the people must be for it and it's therefore a good bill. But the situation isn't quite that simple.

Another extreme interpretation is that with the AFL-CIO Executive Committee now in open opposition to the Senate-passed bill, this will mark the beginning of the end for Massachusetts Sen. John F. Kennedy's bid for labor support in his drive for the Democratic presidential nomination in 1960.

It must be remembered, however, that it is not the original Kennedy-Ervin bill which AFL-CIO has now gone back on. It is the 35 amendments added on the Senate floor. They include the Sen. John L. McClellan (D-Ark.) "Bill of Rights," as revised by Sen. Thomas H. Kuchel (R-Calif.).

That's what AFL-CIO president George Meany and Machinists' president Albert J. Hayes are expected to testify against before the House Labor Committee in June.

IN THE MEANTIME, OTHER SENATORS and congressmen are having plenty of second thoughts about the Kennedy-Ervin bill which they whopped through 90-1 on April 25. The "one" was Sen. Barry Goldwater (R-Ariz.), who has a tougher bill of his own he'd like to see adopted.

Senator McClellan's latest proposal to make unions subject to antitrust laws stirred up Teamster boss James R. Hoffa into a short-lived threat for a nationwide strike.

That played right into the hands of congressmen wanting a tougher labor law and Hoffa tried to suck back. Sen. George A. Smathers (D-Fla.) has a bill aimed directly at Hoffa through proposed regulation of all transportation unions. It is of questionable constitutionality. But for the moment it adds to the confusion.

HOUSE LABOR COMMITTEE CHAIRMAN Graham A. Barden (D-N.C.) has a bill of his own, tougher than the Senate bill. Rep. Carroll D. Kearns (R-Pa.), ranking Republican on House Labor Committee, has thrown another substitute into the hopper. It is only about half as long as the Senate bill and it includes President Eisenhower's labor program. But it isn't just another GOP last stand gesture.

Rep. James Roosevelt (D-Calif.), representative of the House Labor Committee liberal wing, without endorsing the Kearns bill in full, thinks its formula for regulating unions through National Labor Regulations Board instead of through Department of Labor is sound and worth study.

But there isn't much use trying to compare details of all these bills. They are so complicated only experts can understand them. Also, most of the more than 50 provisions in pending bills probably won't be in any law finally approved by Congress, this year, or next.

Radio and TV

By CHARLES MERCEUR
NEW YORK (AP)—Jack Paar understandably wants to do three midnight shows a week instead of five. NBC-TV understandably wants him to do five.
It may be settled any day now, with Eddie Albert and his wife Margo doing two a week from Hollywood and Paar three a week from New York. Then again, it may be settled quite differently.
In any event, Paar is what is known as an "invaluable property." During the past year he has become one of the most popular and unquestionably the most talked-about entertainers on television.
He probably has done more to rearrange the sleeping habits of more Americans than anything that has happened since pajamas superseded the old-fashioned night shirt.
This is no satisfaction to Paar because he has had to rearrange his own sleeping habits. He used to be an early-to-bed and early-to-rise man — and still would like to be. The chief reason why he has been taping some of his shows is that he hates to stay awake after midnight.
Furthermore, he can't sleep soundly anywhere except in his own suburban Westchester abode.
There isn't much point in a reporter interviewing Paar because five nights a week he interviews himself before several million people, candidly expressing what's on his mind.
I think the reason so many people stay up late watching the Paar show is that he keeps them breathlessly waiting to learn what he's going to say or do next — a characteristic he also likes his guests.

FAT CHILDREN BECOME FAT ADULTS

So many youngsters are overweight during late childhood and adolescence, the condition might be considered normal. The situation is different with those who have been obese throughout their entire childhood. These boys and girls are good candidates for a corpulent adulthood.

This is why weight problems need early attention even tho, according to A. G. Mullins, their chances of reducing may not be too good. Some of these blubbery youngsters are not too intelligent and studies have shown they do not cooperate when placed on a diet. Dr. Mullins also found that the overweight adult who was a chubby child was likely to become extremely obese because of his large appetite or nervous habits.

Many tubby children have fat parents. This brings up the question of heredity, which has been tossed about in medical circles for years but never has been answered to the satisfaction of all concerned. Many physicians discount this origin of obesity.

They consider the cause to be poor example and the kind of food served at the family table rather than the genes. The parents consume too many calories and the children follow suit. Others believe that sensations of hunger or delayed satiety are inherited characteristics, basing their evidence on studies made on laboratory mice, not humans.

Regardless of the cause of obesity, most chubby boys and girls eat too much and exercise too little. In some, a hearty appetite is traced to emotional or psychological difficulties. These youngsters are unhappy and withdrawn and nibbling on food brings them consolation. A few are victims of a glandular disorder.

These factors are taken into consideration when the physician tries to inveigle a fat child to eat less. The entire family must cooperate by encouraging junior to indulge in food only at mealtime. Nothing is accomplished thru razzing or threats. Motivation is the best stimulus. Without it, the youngster will find a way to cheat on eating. Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies letter.

TOMORROW: Nervous stomach or spastic colon.

HURRY HAS INDIGESTION.

Mrs. T. writes: Everything my husband eats gives him indigestion. How can this be cured?

REPLY
Since there are numerous causes of indigestion, he may be blaming food whereas worry, overwork, ulcer, or gall bladder disease is responsible. Some digestive disturbances stem from a food substance, such as milk or corn, to which the person is allergic. Why not ask your husband to have a checkup?

GRAYBEARD

B. V. writes: I'm 67 and haven't a gray hair on my scalp. But the beard I'm raising is coming out gray. Why?

Hair depigmentation follows various patterns. Some persons are gray all over whereas others are gray only in certain areas. Many white-haired women, for example, have a dark streak at the nape of the neck.

NEURITIS IN THE ALCOHOLIC

W. J. writes: Is it true that drinking leads to neuritis?

REPLY
Yes, in some instances. Send a stamped, self-addressed envelope for our leaflet on alcoholic neuritis.

Business Mirror

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—If you are one of the many who make firm resolutions to save money and then find that for some reason or other you don't—it may be a consolation to know that bankers say the most changeable of all is your Uncle Sam.

Individuals—taken as a whole, not as isolated instances—tend to save at much the same rate year after year. Business savings go up and down, but that's tied closely to whether times are good or bad.

The federal government is the most changeable. It alternately pours money into, or takes it out of, the economy by saving or going into debt.

And the total savings of all three elements determine to a large degree whether money is easy or tight, whether a new expansion of the economy can be financed or not without planned inflation.

At the moment demand for credit is rising faster than is the supply of investment funds—savings.

Money is getting tight. Interest rates are rising.

The demand for funds is rising because business is getting better and looks to loans for expansion of plant or activity, because home construction has picked up and mortgage money is needed, and because consumer spending has increased and more installment credit is sought.

The supply side is this: for two years now personal saving has been at an annual rate of 20 to 21 billion dollars.

Retained earnings of corporations are on the rise again, the Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis believes.

Corporate savings last year, lowest since 1946, are put at $4 billion dollars by economists of the Chase Manhattan Bank of New York. Tot his they add capital consumption allowances at a record 39 1/2 billion dollars.

These three sources of savings add up to around 66 billion dollars a year. And in one way or another they can all be tapped by business as it expands its activities or its plant.

This Timid Little Mouse Will Run at Her Shadow

A woman can have just about everything and not know how to make the most of her assets. Sue is like that. She's pretty. She's capable. She has a good mind. And she has a good education.

But Sue might as well not have any of these assets, for all the good they do her.

She is so timid and so afraid of ever looking different that most people don't even notice how pretty she really is.

She doesn't get credit for being half as capable as she is because she runs herself down, instead of subtly calling attention to her accomplishments.

She has good ideas but she is afraid to express them so she is the kind of person who is always wondering why something wasn't done by a group when if she had suggested the idea it might have been done.

Women who have a lot less to offer than Sue have left her sitting on the sidelines, feeling lonely and unappreciated, because they have made so much better use of their own abilities.

That's why it is smart for any woman who is secure enough so that life isn't a constant challenge to check up on herself now and then and make sure she is making the most of the gifts that are hers to use as best she can.

It's easy for such a woman to let herself become drab instead of vivid, to worry and talk about the things she is not good at, instead of concentrating on doing the things she can do well.

It's easy to fall into that habit—but it makes a woman so much less of a person than she could and ought to be.

Reminders for Y-Teen Campers

Connie Spattifor, Y-Teen director at the YWCA, reminds these younger members that balances on their camp fees are due no later than Thursday, June 4, and medicals must be returned by June 10. Letters are being mailed to all girls who have registered, sending their medical forms and a letter of last-minute reminders of things that should be brought to camp.

Mrs. Spattifor will be camp director when the session gets under way Sunday, June 14, with the closing date set for one week later. Serving as camp staff will be the following persons:

Nurse—Mrs. Marian Dick; waterfront director—Karet Miller, assisted by Marie Oriole, Beverly See; cooks—Mrs. Barone and Mrs. Sally Francis; dining room girl—Suzanne Spattifor.

Junior-Senior Prom At Beaty Cafeteria

Excitement fills the air as Junior-Senior Prom time draws near for Warren High School students. The affair has been scheduled May 30 in Beaty Junior High School cafeteria, with dancing from 9:00 to 1:00.

Providing music for the event will be Gail Graham's popular orchestra, which recently starred at the Hotel Jamestown's Crystal Ballroom.

The prom, planned by members of the Class of 1960, has been titled "The Sand and the Sea", with theme and decorations remaining a deep dark secret until the chosen night.

Joan Massa and Dick Elmhurst are serving as general chairmen; with the following lined up as committees:

Band—Dave Grady and Martha Faye; decorations—Linda Berenfield, Evan Lanman and Dennis Bonavita; publicity—Vi Biekarck and Don DeLucas; refreshments—Donna Jones and Dorothy Anderson.

Finances—Bill Elmhurst and Mary Graham; tickets and programs—Bill Lombard and Carol Papalia; chaperones, Molly Wendelboe and Tom Africa.

Advisors for this year's affair are Miss Kay Powell, Miss Joan Saglimbene, Richard Kauffman and Harry Danielson.

As usual, a good turnout is anticipated. Those who have the award for having most members present.

not already done so may secure tickets in the office of Principal Joseph Passaro.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Yaegle, Pleasant township, were pleasantly surprised Sunday, May 17, when family and friends, numbering about 65, gathered to help them celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary. The couple received many lovely gifts and cards, also purses of money.

Mr. Yaegle has been in the lumbering business for 34 years. He and his wife are parents of Joyce Uhlig, North Warren; Norma, Roger, and Randy, at home.

The bride of 25 years received her guests in a medium blue bolero dress, with which she wore white accessories and a white orchid corsage.

Joyce Uhlig served the anniversary cake; Margaret Brittain, niece of the bride, and Clara Dexter, her sister, poured coffee; Norma Yaegle managed the guest book.

Girl Scouts-Mothers of Pleasant Township Gather for Annual Event

Pleasant Township Girl Scouts and their mothers enjoyed their annual mother-daughter tureen this week, with 65 in attendance. Committee for the planned menu was comprised of troop leaders and assistance. Preceding the meal, Mrs. Robert Schumann led recital of the Johnny Appleseed Grace.

At the close of dinner, fifth and sixth grade patrons of Mrs. David Worley and Mrs. Robert Brown presented the Colors and repeated both national and Girl Scout salutes, followed by Girl Scout Laws in unison. Flag bearers were Cherie Salapek, Donna Egger, Judy Bennett and Kathy Heald.

Fifth grade girls presented Second Class rank and additional Magic Carpet and Home-maker badges for First Class were Sandy Confer, Linda Drum, Linda Morrison, Judy Bennett, Cherie Salapek, Donna Egger, Kathy Heald and Cassie Kelly.

Mrs. Brown presented Home-maker, Bird, Game, and Magic Carpet badges to Darlene Toner, Cindy Irwin, Frances Hennessey, Judy Wise, Judy Nieswonger, Patty Cole, Linda Schumann, Patty Peterson, Kathy Hannold and Linda Pring. Others in this sixth grade group working on First Class rank received the following badges: Folk Dancing, Drawing and Painting, Linda Schumann; Drawing and Painting, Kathy Hannold; Music, Patty Cole.

Seventh graders, led by Mrs. C. J. Tipton and Mrs. Walter Grimes, appeared in Girl Scout uniforms completed in their sewing classes and received badges in Good Grooming and Clothing: Sue Tipton, Sue Johnson, Karen Grimes, Judy Jenberg, Gloria Hoffman, Karen Mazzuca, Miss Mazzuca also received a Magic Carpet badge.

Eighth grade girls working on Curved Bar rank were presented by their leader, Mrs. Clarence Hendrickson, who outlined plans and activities of the group. Having chosen the Outdoor Field for their project, the girls expect to accomplish much at camp in Allegany State Park this summer and in experiences on a farm.

In the group are Sally Confer, Lois Hendrickson, Susan Hultman, Beth Ritchie, Kathy Tipton, Maureen Burke, Kay Jenkins, Eleanor Mintzer, Sandy Fredericks. They closed with presentation of a farewell gift to Maureen Burke, who will move with her family to Massachusetts next month.

Finally, there was costume singing by three groups under the direction of Mrs. Schumann: Darkies singing spirituals were Cindy Irwin, Judy Wise, Judy Nieswonger, Cassie Kelly; cowgirls in westerns, Linda a Schumann, Darlene Toner, Patty Peterson, Patty Cole; sailors in songs of the sea, Linda Pring, Frances Hennessey, Kathy Hannold, Karen Mazzuca.

State President Is GOP Council Guest

The Warren County Council of Republican Women yesterday hosted representatives from six other county councils and the State President, Mrs. Gwen MacCartney with state membership chairman, Mrs. Marion Day.

The workshop meeting, held at the YWCA, dealt with problems and ideas pertaining to building up council memberships and planning programs. State officials are urging all participating councils to continue contacting every registered GOP woman to join the ranks.

Roll call indicated that 54 Republican women, including officers from Crawford, Elk, Erie, Forest, McKean, Mercer and Warren counties, were in attendance at the session.

Breakfast was served at 10:00 a. m. by Mrs. William E. Rice, assisted by Mrs. Gilbert Sanford of Youngsville. Miss Sunny Lucia handled registration with Mrs. Leslie Dodd of Columbus with Mrs. Ralph Sires in charge of the entire meeting as district director for Warren and McKean counties.

Mrs. James K. Davis, wife of the state assemblyman from Forest county was in the group as was Mrs. Sarah Anderson of Mercer, mother of Mrs. Lyle Knapp, Fifth avenue, ext. As the morning session opened ed a solemn moment of silence was observed in tribute to the late Assemblyman Allen M. Gibson, who died in Harrisburg Monday evening following a heart attack.

Luncheon followed and additional business processed, the conference ending at 3:00 p. m.

Both visitors from Republican headquarters in the Capital were impressed by the beauty and friendliness of Warren, stating that they hoped to return in the near future.

CHORAL GROUPS WELL RECEIVED

The Choral Festival presented Tuesday evening in Beaty Junior High School auditorium by Warren's recently formed vocal groups proved a very pleasing event and a credit to Director Byron L. Swanson and his singers. Proceeds will go to the Dr. LeRoy B. Campbell Piano Scholarship Fund.

WILL BE GUEST

Warren Zonta Club members will have the pleasure of entertaining their district governor, Marguerite Thayer of Niagara Falls, N. Y., for a 6:30 p. m. Thursday dinner at Penn-Laurel. Also at this time, new members will be welcomed into the club.

Teachers Must Dish Up Three R's Sugar Coated

BY MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE

Chief cause of the rise in school violence is that schools have been "forced to assume custodial duties for large numbers of delinquent and emotionally disturbed children," reports the Senate subcommittee investigating juvenile delinquency.

Let's digest this official finding.

If we do, we'll stop branding our schoolteachers as "soft" and "progressive." We'll stop roaring, "Just teach Melvin how to read, write and do sums and stop concerning yourself with the 'whole child'."

Let's they lose their jobs, teachers have not roared back. "Send us whole children and we won't have to struggle with their anxieties and rages day after day. We'll be able to demand concentration on those three R's you adore without wondering who's going to blow up, play hooky or develop a facial tic. We won't have to return to school ourselves every summer to learn the newest candy-coated technique for seducing your children into using their brains."

It's never been a question of the comparative value of new teaching methods and the old ones. For years now the real question has been "How can I get anything over to these restless, preoccupied kids who bring to my overcrowded class the effects of family confusion, parental overindulgence—the whole climate of adult self-doubt in which most of them live?"

If we want teachers to teach we can't also ask them to act as social workers. In their new methods is their confused answer to our demand that they do a double job. The subtle techniques don't work because upset children are alerted to them at home.

What we all need to do, teachers and public alike, is to stop blaming each other for social changes we could not control, and acknowledge that special psychological skills are the equipment for teaching many of today's youngsters.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Tibbott and granddaughter spent the weekend with relatives in Ebensburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Meredick, Rochester, N. Y., and Miss S. W. Brooks, Youngstown, O., have been visiting relatives in Warren, and attended Commencement exercises for their nephew, David Meredick, at Edinboro State Teachers College.

BARNES

BARNES — Otto Barnes has arrived from Tucson, Ariz., to spend the summer at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Curtin and other relatives here and with his sister, Helen Roberts, spent Sunday in Kane with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Conquer.

Mr. and Mrs. George Conquer, with Mrs. Ora Loveland of Cory, spent Sunday in Jamestown with Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Swart.

A daughter, Pamela Von, who weighed 6 pounds and 11 ounces, was born May 21 in Warren General Hospital to Mr. and Mrs. Amos Thomas of Warren. Mrs. Thomas is the former Gloria Whittion, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Whittion. The latter couple has received word from their son, Ned, who recently enlisted in the Air Force, giving his address as follows: AB Ned E. Whittion, AF-23800525, SLT-301, Box 1526 Lackland AFB, San Antonio, Tex.

LANDER

LANDER — The regular meeting of WSCS will be held June 3, with dinner served at 12:30 p. m., followed by a business session and plastics demonstration.

Lander Birthday Club was entertained at the home of Mrs. Charles Swanson, with 10 members present for a 6:30 dinner.

Mrs. Wilbert Johnson was honor guest and remembered with a gift of money. Mrs. Arvid Gruber was a guest of the club.

Foster Cemetery Society met at the home of Mrs. Harry Ludwick, with 15 members and several guests in attendance. Mrs. Gilbert Loree, president, conducted the meeting, with plans made for planting flower beds at the cemetery. Members were reminded the June meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Wilbert Johnson and, in conclusion, the hostess served refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Stufflebeam have sold their farm to Allan and Kenneth Landell.

Pfc. James Rapp, of Grand Island, N. Y., spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Rapp.

Mrs. Henry Lindell is home from the Brennan-Root Nursing Home.

April Bond Purchases Increase Over 1958

Warren county residents purchased United States Savings Bonds amounting to $57,087 during April it was announced by Harry W. Conarro, chairman of the county committee.

Purchases for the same month a year ago were $53,250.

For Pennsylvania as a whole April purchases of Series E and H bonds were $34,589,962 down 2.4 per cent from the same month a year ago. For the year to date, purchases have reached $145,417,270 or 31 per cent of the state's 1959 goal of $466,500,000.

Although total purchases were down slightly from a year ago, Series E and H bonds bought by individuals were up.

E bond purchases by individuals were $27,318,312 in April compared to $27,239,503 a year ago. E bonds are sold in denominations of $25 to $10,000 and interest is paid when they are redeemed.

H bond purchases by individuals were $5,480,000 in April compared to $5,054,000 a year ago. H bonds are sold in denominations of $500, $1,000, $500 and $10,000 and interest is paid semi-annually by Treasury check.

Forest Homemakers Honor Pie Champion

Forest county homemakers honored Miss Janet Kiehl of Redcliffe for winning the crown of Pennsylvania Cherry Pie Queen for 1959. At the final assembly of this school year at East Forest School Mrs. Robert Cargo gave a cookbook to Queen Janet.

Homemakers who contributed to this gift were those who attended Forest County Homemakers Day. They wanted to recognize Janet for her home-making skill required to win the state contest. Homemakers Day is an annual event of the home economics program of the Forest County Agricultural Extension Association.

The United States uses about a pound of paper a day for each person in the nation.

Cotton Lingerie for a June Bride

Delicate Is The Word

BY GALE DUGAS
NEA Women's Editor

(NEW YORK — (NEA) — The June bride is a lucky girl. Her trousseau this year can include beautiful lingerie in sheer cottons.

Supima cotton lingerie has been given the treatment which really fine lingerie should have. Exquisite gowns and peignoirs in blue or pale aqua or white cotton chiffon are delicately ruffled, laced and beribboned in hand-run Alencon lace, satin cord and satin ribbon. Sometimes the entire bodice of a peignoir or gown is ruffled in lace.

Morning coats are new and feature an above-elbow sleeve. They're designed to keep you looking fresh and pretty at the breakfast table. Wear a ruffled lace cap to cover those pin curls if you want to look really fetching.

Supima sheer chifons and batistes have been given new crease-resistant finish to round out the special luster and silkiness of these fabrics.

Josephine de Beauharnais would have doled out this gown of cotton chiffon (left) by Iris. Pale blue chambray band is set in at raised waistline. Gown is cut with a camisole top, has lace and embroidery trim. There's a matching peignoir. The luxury-loving Josephine would have coveted this peignoir (right) as much as any modern bride might. Lace covers the bodice and caps the short sleeves in this design by Iris. Tiny buttons are satin covered; the waistline has satin draw cord.

Good Prospects For Production Of Spring Crops

HARRISBURG (AP)—The State Crop Reporting Service sees good prospect for full production of cherries, peaches, strawberries, hay, tobacco and other field crops this season.

In its weekly crop and weather roundup Tuesday, the service said:

"Cereal grains are making excellent progress. Winter wheat was earlier reported as damaged by a severe winter, but the crop appears to have made excellent recovery."

"Weather during the week ending Monday was generally favorable for farmers in the southern part of Pennsylvania, although scattered local showers Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday slowed activity in northern counties. Soil moisture conditions ranged from short in some southern counties to surplus in the north."

"Cherries are sizing nicely, but the fruit set is spotty in some areas. Peach set is generally good and in some instances trees are fuller than normal and chemical thinning is under way. However, in some areas of the northwest, certain varieties of peaches set unevenly. Strawberries are of normal size for the date and harvest is expected to begin on schedule.

"Tobacco plant setting also is expected to start on schedule. Selling of processing tomatoes continues and some tomatoes for fresh market (green wrap) are being set in the Luzerne County area."

"Corn planting is about two-thirds complete. Alfalfa hay cutting has started. Pastures are, for the most part, lush and making normal growth. Grass ensilage cutting is nearing a peak in southern counties."

WEEKLY FOOD REVIEW

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Planning a ham dinner or some sort of outdoor meal, barbecue or picnic over the Memorial Day weekend?

The men who map weekly special for the nation's supermarkets hope you're planning such meals, for that's what they have on the bargain lists this weekend.

Versatile ham, which can be served hot or cold, is pretty much a staple for a summer or winter holiday. Canned hams, which are even simpler to handle, also are featured in some stores.

Memorial Day is regarded in some circles as sort of a kickoff date for outdoor eating, and a variety of items suitable for such meals are offered at bargain prices. Hamburgers, frankfurters, luncheon meats, potato salad and the like are included.

More than 80 per cent of American families eat outdoors at some time during the year, according to a recent survey by Chain Store Age.

Asparagus, at the height of its season, and sweet corn, which seems to have an ever-lengthening season, top a long list of outstanding buys among vegetables.
Other best buys are tomatoes,
lettuce, pascal celery, carrots,
spinach, cooking greens, radishes, snap beans and two types of onions, green onions and white boilers.

California peaches are off to a fast start on what looks like a banner crop and the southeastern states also are sending theirs early. The result is prices as low as 29 cents a pound.

Watermelons also are abundant and cheap, along with nearby apples, bananas and California navel oranges.

Science Shrinks Piles
New Way Without Surgery
Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemor-roids, stop itching, and relieve pain — without surgery.
In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place.
Most amazing of all—results were so thorough that sufferers made astonishing statements like "Piles have ceased to be a problem!"

The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®)—discovery of a world-famous research institute.

PARADE ORDERS Memorial Day --- 1959

(Official)

Parade will form at designated places at 9:30 and will march promptly at 10:00 A. M.

Upon final formation, each unit shall dispatch their National colors under Co. I guards who will be provided, commencing with the last unit and proceeding to the first unit, with orders to report to the Chief-of-Staff or his designated representative. Units should wait for Company I Guards to pick up their Colors and escort them to the head of the parade.

Parade will move south on Market Street to Pennsylvania Avenue, west on Pennsylvania Avenue to Hickory Street, south across the Hickory Street Bridge to Crescent Park, east on Crescent Park through gates of Oakland Cemetery.

Upon completion of program, the parade will re-form as units move away from the G.A.R. Circle. All division commanders and one aide from each division shall form at the head of the column. The head of the parade will halt as it reaches the cemetery gates and await the command of the parade marshal to move out.

Upon arrival at intersection of Pennsylvania Avenue and Hickory Street, the First Division will proceed west on Pennsylvania Avenue and proceed to the Marine Corps Home, disbanding at that point. The Second Division will turn west on Pennsylvania Avenue and disband at the American Legion Home. The Third Division will turn east on Pennsylvania Avenue and disband on the south side of Pennsylvania Avenue as its rear elements clear the intersection.

Ralph Akers is designated Liaison Officer of the Day.

All entries are requested to carefully observe their position in the parade, maintaining an interval of 30 paces between divisions, 10 paces between units.

ADVICE FROM COUNTY AGENT

For effective sampling of different kinds of grass silage at different levels in upright silos, Asst. County Agent Blaine Schlosser suggests labeling the various sections as the silo is filled. He says farmers using the Penn State forage testing service will find such labeling to be particularly helpful.

Three major types of forage—mixed or legume, grass and birdsfoot trefoil should be identified for separate sampling as the silage is fed out. If second or third cuttings of these forage types are ensiled, they also should be marked for separate sampling.

As harvesting of one type of forage is completed, place a suitable marker over the surface of this lot in tea silo. For a marker use a piece of heavy card marked with pencil or crayon within a double thickness of plastic bags. In this way designate each new lot for sampling as it is fed out.

On the labels indicate the type of forage, the cutting—first, second or third, and the cutting date. If the hay crop material ensiled does not vary much in type, markers may be used to designate lots of forage with an appreciable difference in cutting dates. At least three sampling areas of grass silage should be designated in each silo. When the different layers of silage are added at short intervals—one week or less, the sampling areas in the silo may be divided roughly into thirds—bottom, middle and top.

Sugar Grove Herd Repeats As Best Milk Producer

Mrs. John Anderson's Holstein herd again leads the county in production for the month of April according to figures announced by Elaine Schlosser, Assistant County Agent. Mrs. Anderson's herd, managed and cared for by Roy Stoddard, averaged 1540 lbs. of milk and 51 lbs. of butterfat per cow.

In second place the herd of Lester Peterson, Pittsfield, averaged 1305 lbs. milk, 48 lbs. fat; third place goes to Edward Day, Youngsville, whose herd averaged 1297 lbs. milk, 47 lbs. fat; in fourth place Leigh Smith, Pittsfield, an average of 1194 lbs. milk, 44 lbs. fat; and the fifth place position goes to Carleton Curtis, Columbus, whose herd average was 810 lbs. milk, 42 lbs. fat. The Curtis herd is Jersey, the other top four are of the Holstein breed.

The top ten individual Warren County cows milked over a 305-day period include:

No. 11, owned by Bruce Lindell, 16,661 lbs. milk, 659 lbs. butterfat.

Arthur, in the herd of Lindell Brothers, 16,465 lbs. milk, 617 lbs. fat.

Maud, on the Roscliffe Farm, 12,856 lbs. milk, 579 lbs. fat.

No. 4187, property of State Hospital, 13,296 lbs. milk, 516 lbs. fat.

Spot, Roscliffe Farm, 13,849 lbs. milk, 492 lbs. fat.

Pat, owned by William Wiltzie, 11,932 lbs. milk, 487 lbs. fat.

No. 4174, State Hospital, 13,157 lbs. milk, 467 lbs. fat.

No. 851, State Hospital, 13,032 lbs. milk, 449 lbs. fat.

AB 3303, on the Rouse Hospital Farm, 13,605 lbs. milk, 442 lbs. fat.

No. 4091, State Hospital, 11,288 lbs. milk, 434 lbs. fat.

All ten of these high individual animals are Holsteins and all records are based upon two milkings per day, 305 days or less of actual production.

The testing was done by Darrell Johnson of the Warren County Dairy Herd Improvement Association, and the records then processed by the Pennsylvania State University.

BY OSWALD JACOBY
Written for NEA Service
Milton Unger of New York is one who seems to run into interesting bridge hands continually. He shares them with me and I am glad to share them with you.

This time Milton sat South and opened with three hearts. West led the ace of clubs against the eventual five-heart doubled contract. (All Milton's hands are doubled or redoubled.) Then West shifted to a spade and Milton had no trouble making an overtrick.

A spade opening would beat five and a diamond shift after the actual club opening would have stopped the overtrick.

Milton feels that East should have bid five diamonds over North's four-heart bid and I must agree with him. The preempt crowded him but his partner was surely marked with not more than one heart and East could not be hurt at five diamonds in any event.

If East had bid five diamonds West would probably have been pushed into six. North would surely have doubled. But doubled or not East would have had no trouble making his contract.

CARD SENSE

Q—The bidding has been:

What do you do?
A—Bid six clubs. Your partner is showing belated interest in a grand slam and while you cannot afford the grand slam bid yourself you can tell him that you are interested if he cares to go.

TODAY'S QUESTION

COLE HILL

COLE HILL — Clara Mae Wentworth attended a play, "A Little Bit of Holland", presented at the Irvinedale School May 22; and visited the Rev. and Mrs. Howard Cartwright at Starbrick on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Helmer Fornell, Jamestown, visited Mr. and Mrs. Willis Wentworth Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Loyal McAvoy and son, Howard, visited the Kinzua cemetery Sunday; also the Seneca Indian Reservation near Salamanca. They were accompanied by Mrs. Bernice Hannah and children, Bonnie, Craig, Richard and Mike, of Tidoute, the entire group enjoying a picnic dinner. The McAvoy's visited Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bradybaugh at Marienville recently and visited the cemetery at that place.

Blanche Conklin has been a recent dinner guest of Mrs. Fred Rulander. Other callers have been Mrs. Eliza Logren, Youngsville, and Mrs. Westfall, of Titusville. The Rulanders, with Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Thomas of Starbrick, visited Mr. and Mrs. Bert Richardson

Questions and Answers About Warren Schools

Readers with questions concerning the schools may jot them down and mail to School Editor, Times-Mirror. Names are not included when the questions are submitted to the school staff, which answers the inquiries as a service to the community.

Question: "Should the parents limit the student's extra-curricular activities to make sure there is enough time for studying?"

Answer: "The student should have plenty of study time. In answering this question we would say the parents should not do the limiting arbitrarily, but the student should do it, himself. The parents should help him to decide and they should have the final word. The schools can help with advice; don't forget that next year we will have two full time Guidance people at the high school and at Beauty Junior High.

and Mrs. Jennie Shaner at Bolivar, N. Y., on Saturday. Patricia Holmes celebrated her birthday May 23 at her home, with a family dinner which included a lovely birthday cake.

Commencement at Youngsville High School will be May 28; grade schools will close June 5.

There will be Sunday School in Davy Hill church at 2:30 p. m. Sunday, with the church service at 2:30 p. m.

Question: "I was interested to read that the German girl at Warren High this year has already studied French since Fifth Grade, Latin for six years, and English for several years. It makes our American kids seem underprivileged in languages."

Answer: "This column reported that many school systems in Pennsylvania towns and cities now offer to teach the grade school youngsters a foreign language. Doctors say the pre-adolescent is at the best time of life to learn another language, when it is 'child's play.'"

Question: "Congratulations on offering a 3d year course in Latin, German and Spanish for the high school students next fall! Dr. Conant says on Page 69 of 'The American High School Today': 'I have met no teachers of foreign language who felt that anything approaching mastery could be obtained by the study of a foreign language for only two years in high school, nor have the students felt that two years of study had given them any real working knowledge of the language.'"

Answer: "Anyone interested in taking these third year courses should enroll now, so we can plan the space for classes and arrange for teachers. Next year we would offer Russian, if it is possible to figure out the space and teacher time. Remember we will have 150 to 200 more pupils next year than the old building was designed to hold.

"We have been proud of our language offerings. A number of our students have visited in Germany after two years of studying, the language, and have been able to converse with the natives. There are no such examples in Spanish that come to mind but probably such is the same case.

"It might be possible to offer advanced language in after-school hours if the boys and girls will let us know their desire to enroll."

Capsule Messages Due to Arrive in Titusville June 4

TITUSVILLE (AP)—A welcoming committee will be on hand at the National Transit Co.'s pumping station near here June 4 when messages from the governors of 33 oil producing states are scheduled to complete their 1,255-mile journey via pipeline from Corsicana, Texas.

The message left Corsicana May 5 in a stunt to help Titusville celebrate its oil centennial commemorating the world's first commercial oil well, which was brought in near here in 1859 by Col. Edwin Drake.

The messages have been traveling in a capsule attached to a pipe cleaning device.

In the welcoming committee will be Mayor C. C. Hampton of Titusville; President Richard Lockwood of National Transit; and Ned H. Dearborn, president of Oil Centennial, Inc.

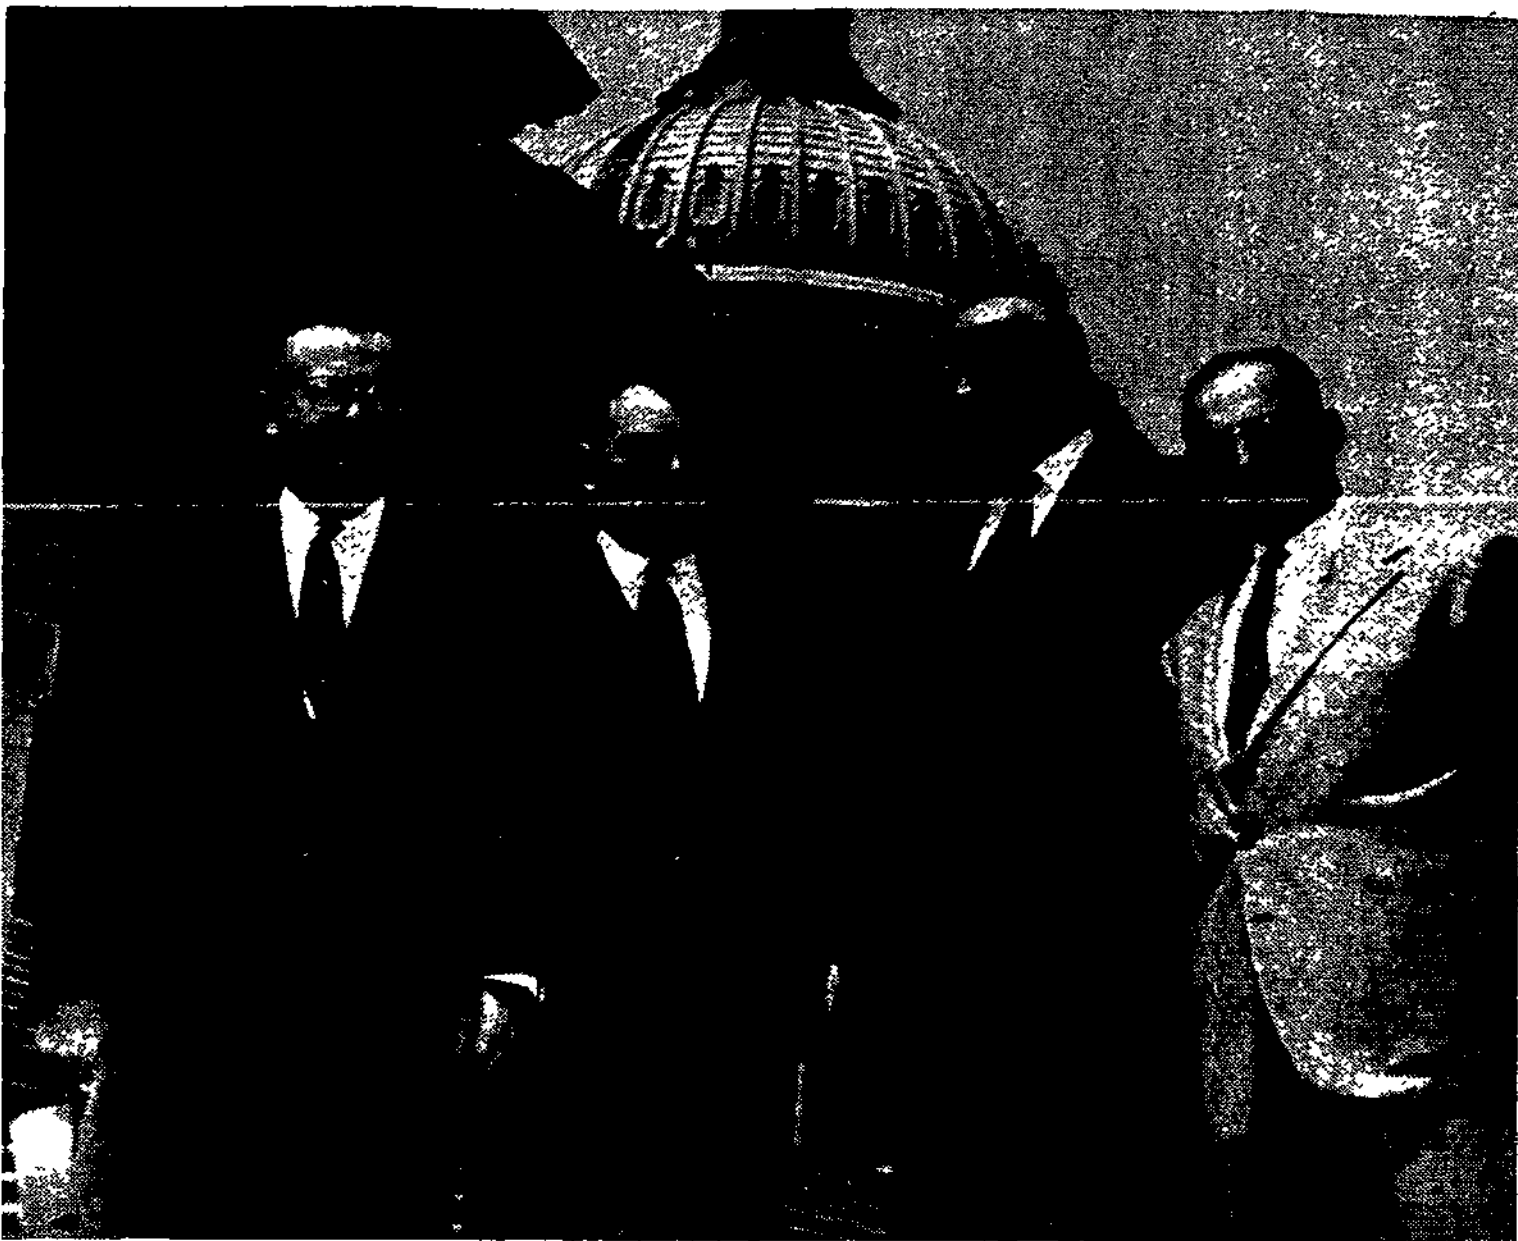

Flood Control Project For Butler Co. Area

WASHINGTON (AP)—A House Public Works Subcommittee Tuesday approved a $1,999,600 flood control project on Connoquessing Creek at Butler, Pa.

If this action is approved by the full committee, the project will be included in an omnibus bill to authorize various water projects.

Work would include widening, deepening and straightening of the stream channel. Local interests are to pay $440,800 of the cost.

Gibson on Visit to Leaders in Washington

State Representative Allen M. Gibson, of Sheffield, left, is shown in a recent photo as he posed for photographers on the steps of the United States Capitol, with Joseph W. Martin, Jr., of Massachusetts, Congressman Leon Gavin, and Albert W. Johnson, of Smithport. Mr. Martin is minority leader of the United States House of Representatives.

Glassware Has Summertime Built-In

BY KAY SHERWOOD
NEA Staff Writer

Although pleasant weather is the signal for many homemakers to transform the terrace into a summer dining room, most of us will but sigh and wish we had such an outdoor spot.

Better than an envious sigh is a plan to simulate the airy charm of a terrace garden, even in an apartment where the nearest blossom is in the park, three blocks away.

New accessories are readymade for the plan, together with older devices for giving a cool, outdoorsy atmosphere to a window nook.

Simple summertime changes that will make hot weather meals less humdrum could include setting the dining table near a window.

Taking down familiar curtains and substituting shutters or a cafe curtain across the bottom of the window is another easy change to make.

Almost as pretty as a real garden are the lifelike flowers blooming on new linens for kitchen and table. Daffodils, lilacs, violets, bachelor buttons; those are some of the prints which you'll find on tablecloths, placemats and co-ordinated with kitchen linen towels. The towels, clipped to a bar across the window, double as curtains.

TO GIVE COLOR to a window that looks stark without its curtains, you might like to try hanging vases on either side of it.

Some of the new ones in hand-crafted American glassware combine lovely colors such as antique gold and Persian blue in two vase units.

Those can be filled with cut flowers or greenery. The jewel-like colors of glass accessories can be used in other ways, too. Placed on narrow glass shelves across the top half, allowing enough room for the lower sash to be raised.

Summer comes indoors. Gold, and accents of blue, are the colors. Seat pads of wrought-iron dining set are of yellow, which repeats in daffodils on cloth. Hand-crafted American glassware is in gold deepening to orange, hanging vases combine gold and blue. White shutters replace curtains at window, which holds bright accents of small vases in color.

Tuck flowers and leaves into small vases or glasses on the shelves as often as you can. If the view out of the window is unattractive, an arrangement of small, colorful containers in various shapes, some filled with a posy or two, will make an effective screen while adding the illusion of airiness.

If the window will be opened for ventilation, put the shelves

World Briefs

MOSCOW (AP)—The youthful son-in-law of Premier Nikita Khrushchev is the new editor of Izvestia, and professionals expect him to brighten the pages of the Soviet government's staid newspaper. Alexei Adzhubei, 34, who married the boss's youngest daughter, has a reputation for injecting human interests into stories—something rare in Soviet journalism.

TOKYO (AP)—A U.S. Army scientist today predicted that manned observation stations on the moon will be supplied by freight-carrying rockets that drop their loads without landing and return to earth. Dr. Ernst Stuhlinger said the rockets would be powered from nuclear sources or from the sun and should be ferrying supplies by 1965 or 1970.

MELBOURNE, Australia (AP)—Hundreds of teen-age girls mobbed U.S. film star Tab Hunter today. They dragged him from his car and covered his light-colored coat with lipstick. The screaming girls kissed him, tugged at his arms, pulled his hair and tried to tear his clothes off. Hunter eventually escaped into a radio station after the mob stopped all traffic.

CORYDON

CORYDON — Local friends extend congratulations and best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Bunker, former Corydon residents now living in Coudersport, who will be observing their 46th wedding anniversary on May 28.

Married at Hebron Center, Pa., with the rite performed by the late Ira Goff of the Hebron United Brethren church, the Bunkers have two daughters, Mrs. Daniel Tracin and Mrs. Kenneth Baker; three sons, Craig, Richard and Robert Bunker.

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Nagy have returned to Pittsburgh after a weekend visit with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Davis and family. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Burgett and sons, Tony, Matt and Mike, of Edinboro, spent the weekend with Mrs. George Prue.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ruth and family were Sunday visitors of Ernie and North East relatives.

Callers of Mrs. L. J. Learn have been Mrs. Margaret Wilcox and son, Lloyd, of Lander; Mr. and Mrs. Basil White, Warren.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Peck, Mrs. P. E. Tome and Mr. and Warren, have been callers of Mrs. Marvin Russ.

Mr. O. A. Benton accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Ray Whitney, Jr., and the Oscar Bentions of Bradford to graduation of the Whitneys' daughter, Miss William McKnight at Edinboro State Teachers' College.

Jack Reid has returned to his home in Oil City after a weekend visit here.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Johnson, Bradford, were Sunday callers of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Funk.

Veterans News

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Q—A friend of mine, not a veteran, made a fairly large extra principal payment on his house recently, and was required by the lender to pay some additional interest as a penalty. My friend says this is a common practice in conventional loan arrangements. I understand, however, that it is not possible where the loan is a GI loan. Am I correct?

A—You are right. The GI loan law specifically states no penalty charges may be made if a veteran wishes to make an extra principal payment on his loan. The extra payment, however, must be at least one hundred dollars, or a full monthly payment, whichever is smaller.

Q—I am going to college under the Korean GI Bill. If I take a part-time job this summer will I have to report those earnings to the VA?

A—No. Students taking classroom college training under the Korean GI Bill need not report outside earnings, and outside earnings do not affect allowance checks in any way.

Q—My husband died recently of a service-connected condition, and I am now drawing death compensation payments from VA. I have a chance to take a secretarial job. Would my earnings in a job decrease the amount of my compensation?

A—No. Your income would have no effect on your death compensation. Income limitations do apply, however, to pensions based on deaths not connected with military service.

Q—I let my permanent plan GI insurance policy lapse, and along with it, the total disability rider I was carrying. I reinstated the basic insurance policy but not the disability rider. In reinstating the disability income provision, must I pay all back premiums on it, plus interest, or can I just add a new disability rider?

A—In reinstating a lapsed disability income rider to your GI insurance you may either follow the procedure of paying back premiums, with interest, and fulfilling health conditions, as you did with your basic permanent plan insurance policy, or you may simply apply for a new disability rider.

Boyle's Column

By RELMAN MORIN

(Substituting for Hal Boyle)

NEW YORK (AP) — "For years," said the man from Texas, "I ordered chicken salad sandwiches, which I hate, because it was the only item on the menu I could pronounce without stammering."

John Quincy Mahaffey, editor of the Texarkana Gazette, is a gifted practitioner of the art of after-dinner speaking, much in demand. He stands there, mesmerizing an audience, weaving his ancient withcraft. Nobody moves except when he makes them laugh, which is often.

Afterward, few remember that J. Q. has a speech impediment.

Or rather, he uses it to enhance what he wants to say. Stammering no longer terrorizes him.

Years ago, however, it throttled him to such a point he thought he might have to give up being a newspaper reporter. He couldn't ask questions. He would "freeze," completely unable to talk.

His managing editor heard him struggling on the telephone one day and passed the word around the office, "Don't let Jake talk long-distance—ever. He's unbalancing my budget."

Day after day, J. Q. despairingly settled for the chicken salad sandwich. "Once or twice," he said, "I made a stab at ordering the pineapple-and-egg. But I never made it."

Then the turning-point came. It came in a hotel barber shop through a face full of lather.

Will Rogers, the cowboy humorist, arrived in Texarkana on a fund-raising tour. J. Q. was assigned to meet him and get a story, a funny story, of course.

All the way to the airport, he kept repeating, "My name is Mahaffey and I'm a reporter. My name is Mahaffey and I'm a reporter." It came out smooth as silk.

But when he saw Rogers, he froze again. The words stuck in his throat. In panic, he followed Rogers to the hotel and called him on the telephone. Rogers answered it himself. J. Q. couldn't even say "hello." He hung up, completely shattered now.

A moment later, Rogers came downstairs and went to the barber shop. J. Q. followed him and sat there, struggled to speak. Suddenly, the barber looked at J. Q. and said "Next — you, you're next." J. Q. only shook his head.

At that point, Rogers sat up in the chair and beckoned to J. Q. "Old country boy," he said, "you've been following me, all morning so you must want something. Now you sit over here and tell me what it is you want."

J. Q. sat on a high stool beside the barber chair. He managed to fight his way through the words, "My name is Mahaffey and —" Silently, he pulled out a reporter's note book.

"And you want to know what I'm going to do? And what I think about things?" And a few quotes?"

said Rogers. J. Q. nodded.

The cowboy talked and talked. J. Q. got his story, a great story. "You know, old country boy, you don't have to be afraid. Because anybody who amounts to anything will know before you open your mouth that you stutter. And the others aren't worth talking to, anyway."

This is not quite the end of the story. J. Q. did not emerge overnight as the William Jennings Bryan of Texarkana. But what he did do, and to his own immense astonishment, was to accept a speaking engagement not long afterward!

"That was the worst week of my life," he said. "You see, a stammerer can look down a whole long sentence and see the word that's going to throw him. Sure enough, when he comes to it, it does throw him."

How did he overcome it? "By accepting every time somebody asked me to make a speech," he said. "Every time you make a talk, it throws that old trouble back just a little further."

After nearly 30 years, and thousands of public appearances, J. Q. no longer has to order the chicken salad sandwich.

Haddix Pitches Perfect Game, Loses on 13th Inning Smash

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer
How good do you have to be?
In all baseball history only seven pitchers ever have accomplished a perfect game, and none had to go more than nine innings.
In all baseball history no one ever had pitched more than 10 hitless innings.

Yet Tuesday night, in the greatest pitching performance of all time, Harvey Haddix, Pittsburgh's slim southpaw, pitched 12 innings of perfect ball — and lost.
An error, a sacrifice, an intentional walk and the only hit Haddix allowed — a rule-book double by Joe Adcock — did it, giving Milwaukee's National League leading Braves a 2-0 victory in 13 innings.
Haddix, giving up just one hit, was a loser. Lew Burdette, giving up a dozen hits, was a winner.
There was nothing to approach der, Felix Mantilla reached base on Don Hoak's error leading off the 13th at Milwaukee. Ed Matthews followed with a sacrifice and Haddix then walked Hank Aaron, the majors' top hitter at .442, intentionally.

Adcock then put a high slider over the fence for an apparent home run. A jubilant Aaron, however, cut for the dugout after rounding second and was passed by Adcock. The Braves hustled Aaron back to the base path and he resumed his journey home for the second run, with Adcock credited with a double.
There was a controversy over the score, however. NL President Warren Giles announced he believes the score should be 1-0, with Mantilla's run closing out play. But until an official change is made, the score reads 2-0.
For Haddix (3-3) "It's just another loss—and they're not good."
Burdette (8-2), the majors' top winner, didn't walk a man and struck out two (to Haddix' eight) for his second shutout. He had only two wobbly innings — the third, when the Pirates had three singles, and the ninth, when they collected two.

Harvey's Left Arm Writes Baseball History All Over

Editors: Harvey Haddix, Pittsburgh southpaw, turned in baseball's greatest pitching performance Tuesday night against the Braves with 12 perfect innings only to lose a 13-inning one-hitter. Joe Reichler, AP's baseball expert and a close personal friend, talked with Haddix by telephone after the game and obtained this vivid story.

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Harvey Haddix laughed when told he had made pitching history against the Milwaukee Braves Tuesday night.
"Who, me?" asked the 33-year-old Pittsburgh Pirate left-hander. "All I know is we lost, 2-0, in 13 innings. What's so historic about that? Didn't anyone else ever lose a 13-inning shutout?"
Wait a minute. Wasn't he aware that although he was beaten, he had turned in the greatest pitching performance in baseball history? That he has hurled 12 innings of perfect baseball, a dozen innings in which he faced 36 Milwaukee batters and not one of them reached base until an error by Don Hoak permitted Felix Mantilla to reach first in the 13th inning?

"Yes," Haddix replied. "Sure, I know it. And I knew I had a no-hitter and perfect game from the third inning on. I couldn't remember walking a batter and I sure knew nobody had gotten a base hit off me."
Well, did he know that no pitcher, dating back to baseball's first big league season, in 1876, had ever pitched more than 27 batters in a row, let alone 36; that no one had pitched 12 hitless, let alone perfect innings, in all that time?

"You're kidding," Harvey said. "You mean nobody? Not even guys like Cy Young and Walter Johnson and Christy Mathewson or any of those old fellows? Well, what do you know about that?"
The genuinely modest little southpaw from Springfield, Ohio — he stands 5-9 and weighs 160 pounds — was slowly beginning to realize his accomplishment.

"I know I was really sharp," he admitted, "and it was one of my good games. But that doesn't change things. It's just another loss. Any defeat gives me a let-down feeling. I'd probably have been thrilled if we won. But you never feel good when you lose, no matter how you've pitched."
Did Hoak apologize for his damaging error?
"No," said Haddix. "Why should he? He drove me back to the hotel after the game and all he said was 'I booted 'em before and I'll boot 'em again.' That's the kind of guy he is and I admire him."

Betts Shade Jones Chevy In Loop Opener, 7 to 2

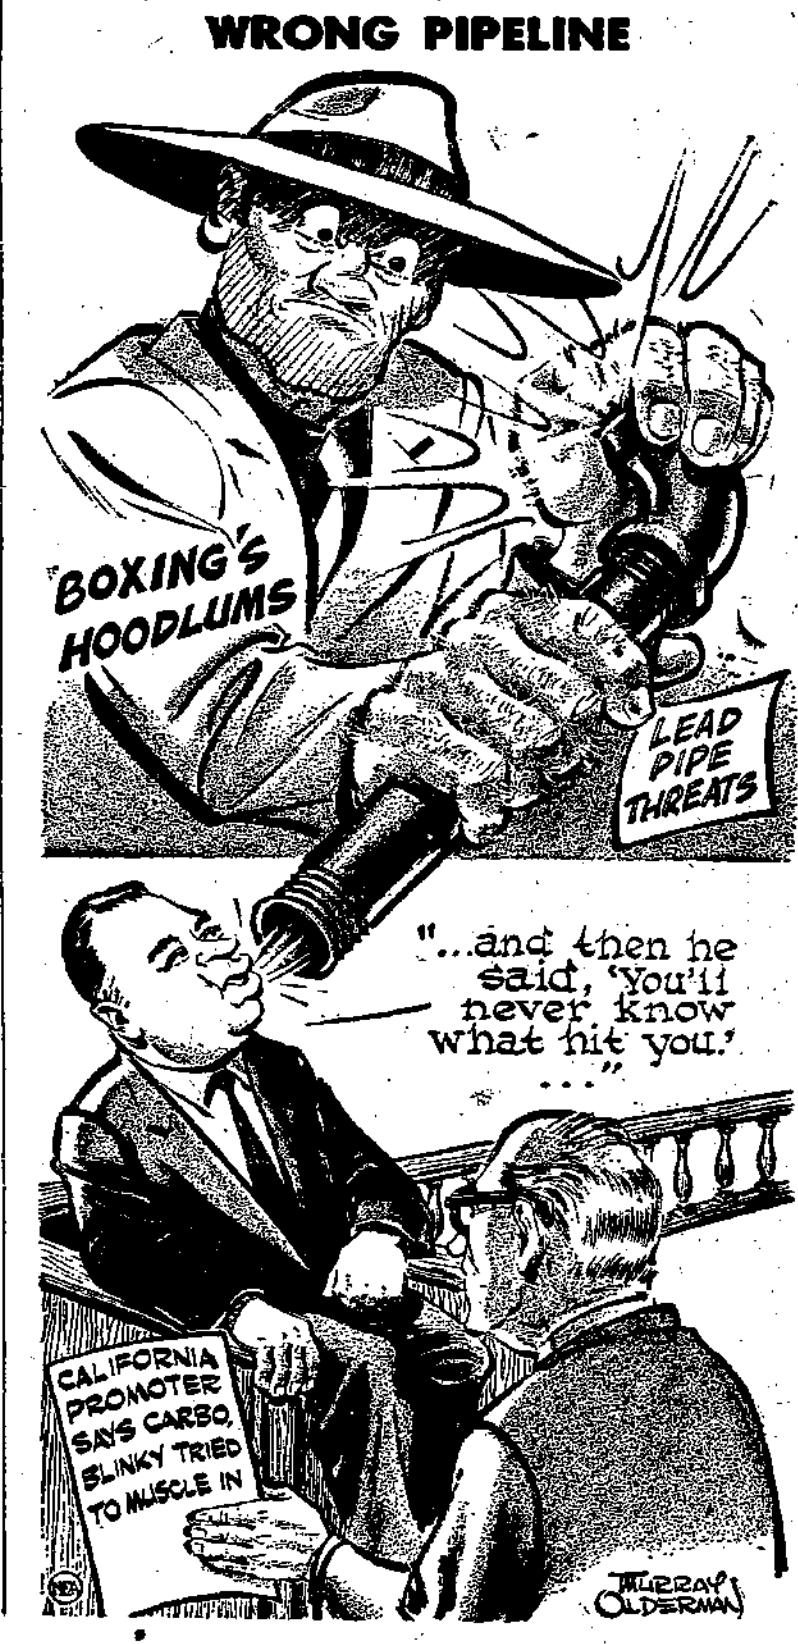

Black Knights of Betts Machine shop opened their action in City Softball loop Tuesday night using a balanced attack over Jones Chevrolet of Sheffield 7 to 2 on the West Side field.

Betts was quick to score on starter Johnson for five runs in first inning. Two walks and a sacrifice fly by Tom Letrent produced one run.
Bill Massa drew another walk, setting the stage for catcher Rico Bonavita's screening double to right center, scoring two more Knights.

The fourth run was tallied in second on Syd Cummings' single. Fitcher John Berdine crossed the plate. In the third, Bonavita sent his second double of the evening to left center, stole third and scored on Bob Schenck's fly to left.
The 4-0 Betts lead lasted until top of fifth when Jones chalked up a lone mark on Bob Bires' single, moving to second on an infield out. Brother George Bires singled to bring home Bob and the first Sheffield run.

Warren Skirt Pilot Wins at Three Point

Callin Hall of Titusville copped feature race at Three Point Race Way Sunday afternoon. Emerson Stokes, Titusville was second and Harold Wilkins, Russell, third.

Powder puff pilot, Florence Glenn of Warren, drove off with first in the ladies' event.
Other winners:
1st heat—Harold Wilkins; Fred Wright, Corry; Tucker Wright, Jamestown.
2nd heat — Jerry Norton; Bradford; Bob Coons, Pittsfield; Harold Morton, Spring Creek.
Third event—Collin Hall; Wilkins; Bud Way, Spring Creek.
Fourth race—Stokes; Coons; Rod Peters.

Sunday's attendance was a record for Three Point.
Races at the oval have been plagued by rains since it opened on April 26. Past two Sunday's races have been run in the rain. But Three Point officials say, "Rain does not stop our races, it just slows us down a little."
A big Memorial Day trophy race will be staged Saturday at 2:30 p. m.

Ferrarese Slashes Chisox; Hits Name in Record Book

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

A winning blend of hitting and pitching has kept Cleveland on top in the American League pennant race. When the hitters miss, the pitchers can do that job too.

Left-hander Don Ferrarese took care of the pitching and the punch for the Indians Tuesday night, combining with reliever Jim Perry for a four-hit shutout while driving in two runs and scoring one with three consecutive doubles in a 3-0 victory over the Chicago White Sox.

That pushed Cleveland two games ahead of the second place White Sox and put Ferrarese in the record book as the fifth pitcher to hit three two-baggers in a nine-inning game and the first to do it in 36 years.

The White Sox second white-washing in three games left them just a half game ahead of Baltimore's third place Orioles, who defeated Washington 6-5. Detroit stayed on the move with a 9-5 victory over Kansas City, and Boston stopped it slid by pounding the New York Yankees deeper into the cellar 12-2.

Ferrarese, a month shy of his 30th birthday, had the only hit off Chicago right-hander Dick Donovan for four innings. Then he cracked the shutout duel in the fifth with his second double, scoring Woody Held, who had singled, and scored himself when Jim Piersall followed with a double. Another single-double combination by Held and Ferrarese wrapped it up against Donovan (2-3) in the seventh.

Right-hander Tom Brewer gave up two runs in the first inning on three hits, then blanked the Yankees on four singles the rest of the way for his third victory of the season, second over New York Bob Turley (3-6) who now has lost three in a row for the first time since 1955, walked eight but gave up only five hits in his 6 2-3 innings.

Pitching — Harvey Haddix, Pirates, became first ever to pitch perfect ball for 12 innings, setting record for hitless innings, but lost 2-0 in 13 innings as a result of the Braves' only hit, a double.

Hitting — Don Ferrarese, Indians, needed relief help for 3-0 victory over White Sox, but took care of hitting all by himself with a record tying three doubles by a pitcher, driving in two runs and scoring one.

MEYER RELEASED

KANSAS CITY (N) — The Kansas City Athletics Tuesday announced the outright release of pitcher Russ Meyer, signed as a free agent this spring after a year out of organized baseball. Meyer, a right-hander, had a 1-0 record in 10 innings pitched.

Death Claims Ed Walsh and Spit Ball Advocate

POMPAHO BEACH, Fla. (N) — Hall of Fame pitcher Ed Walsh is dead at 78 of cancer and the spitball pitch has lost a great advocate.

Big Ed — they called him the "Ironman" in his prime — opposed the ban on the spitball as long as he lived. Spitball pitching was his forte and he used it in the early 1900s to win 40 games one season for the Chicago White Sox.

He died Tuesday, less than two weeks after he celebrated his 78th birthday, bedridden.

"I got a few innings of living left," he told a caller then.

Walsh took to his bed one year after arriving here in 1956 from Meriden, Conn., where he worked in the twilight years as a water department superintendent.

He will be buried Friday at Forest Lawn Memorial Gardens.

The American League will defray funeral expenses. Walsh died at the home of longtime friends, Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. MacAleer.

His entire major league baseball career centered on the White Sox except for four games with the Boston Braves in 1917.

His biggest year was 1908. That's when he won 40 games. He pitched three complete games in succession for the Sox. When he worked both games of a double-header and then pitched the next game, they started calling him the Ironman.

On two occasions, he pitched and won two games on the same day.

Stein Form New Partnership With Sister in Jersey

—Associated Studio
Raymond Stein (above), sole owner of Stein's Ladies Shop, 344 Pennsylvania avenue, west, today announces a new partnership with his sister, Mrs. Henry Pearlman of Larchmont, N. Y., the former Edith Stein of Warren.

Ray and Edie, after several months of negotiation, have purchased Sandra Post, Inc., of White Plains, N. Y., an exclusive shop featuring sportswear and dresses in the $69.95 to $299.95 price range.

The new business venture does not mean that the community will lose Stein's Ladies Shop or its prominent owner, Ray. He, with his wife, Francis and daughters, Beverly and Leslie, will remain here. Ray will be planning and merchandising for the White Plains shop on a long distance basis and will collaborate with "Edie" for seasonal buying for Sandra Post.

Mrs. Pearlman has been associated with Sandra Post, Inc. as manager and buyer for the past eight months and will continue in that capacity. The establishment is a salon type store where sportswear is displayed but dresses brought out for personal showings.

Sandra Post Inc. stars many famous names as far as women's fashions are concerned including Celi Chapman, Rudolph Gowns, Branel, sportswear from "Mr. Panis" and lines from Florida and California. No extensive remodeling is planned at the present time, although new carpeting and lights will be installed.

Well known to many in the area, "Edie" is a Warren High School and Syracuse University graduate. For a short time, after completing her schooling, she was assistant to the director of Education at Hawthorne School for Delinquents in Pleasantville, N. Y. Her husband, Henry, is vice president of Nite-Kraft Corp., with plants in East Orange, N. J., Sunbury, Pa., and Puerto Rico. The Pearlmans have two children, Barbara, attending Art School in New York, and Kenneth, who graduates from High School this June and will enter Syracuse University in the fall.

Stein's Ladies Shop celebrates a 52nd anniversary in Warren this year and its present owner anticipates that its operation will continue for many years to come. Ray graduated from Warren High School in 1928, attended Kiske Prep school and Penn State, where he majored in business administration. He joined his father, Ernest L. Stein, as a partner in 1933 and has managed the store alone for seven years, since his father's retirement. "Ernie" Stein now resides in Florida.

Rates Announced for New Parking Lots

The Warren Parking Authority today announces that rates for both the new Liberty street parking lot and the Market street development have been established as follows: 1 hour for 5c; 2 hours for 10c; 5 hours for 25c and 10 hours for 50c (two quarters).

Of the 212 parking spaces in the Liberty street lot, 58 lower spaces will be reserved for monthly occupancy at a special rate of $5 per month or $50 annually.

The Parking Authority also advises that it is ready to advertise for bids for blacktopping both lots and that Penn-Elec has already purchased required lighting equipment. The lots are scheduled to open August 1st with all construction completed.

Funds for the project are still lacking with some unpaid pledges yet to be received. Those contacted previously, who failed to see the value of providing such off-street parking facilities, are urged to reconsider and contribute to the civic enterprise.

THE MARKETS

NEW YORK (AP)—A hesitant stock market moved unevenly in fairly active early trading today. Pivotal issues showed narrow changes and minus side was generally within a point.

Impressive Rites

country also honored Dulles as they streamed by the thousands past his mahogany casket, lying in state in a chapel of the cathedral. Through the night they came to see, to pause, perhaps to pray in the flower-banked chapel.

The nation shares in the final rites to be telecast at 3:30 p.m. EDT from the cemetery by the NBC and CBS networks.

The Senate adjourned for the day so its members could attend as a group. House leaders announced a recess at the time of the funeral.

Top officials from many lands flocked to Washington to pay their final respects. West Germany's Chancellor Konrad Adenauer arrived Tuesday night.

A plane from Geneva carried Secretary of State Christian A. Herter, French Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville and Britain's Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd from the Big Four conference on Germany, adjourned two days for the occasion.

The Soviet Union's Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko, an opponent of Dulles over the conference table, flew in a commercial plane.

Dulles was a lay leader and senior elder in the Presbyterian Church. The cathedral is Episcopal but services of various denominations are held there.

After a 25-minute service, the funeral party arranged to travel in a motorcade of some 200 cars on the quarter-hour drive to the Memorial Day Arlington National Cemetery.

There, amid flourishes and ruffles from a military band, Dulles' casket was to be moved from the hearse to a horse-drawn caisson, for the slow procession through the cemetery to the grave.

The grave site for Dulles, an Army major in World War I, was at the edge of a hill sloping down toward the Potomac River. It and his simple marble tombstone were much the same as those accorded thousands of other military dead buried in the National Cemetery.

Final rites at graveside — a committal service and benediction — were to be watched by the family, the President and Vice President Nixon and their parties from chairs placed under a canopy.

Then the military would present arms, fire a full 19-gun salute and three volleys of rifle fire, and sound taps.

Praises for Dulles continued to flow to the capital as they have ever since he entered Walter Reed Army Hospital with the cancer that was to take his life.

Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev told a meeting in Tirana, the capital of Communist Albania, that Dulles was an "outstanding politician" who in the last months of his life displayed a "more sober understanding of the international situation."

Special Election

who died in February, his widow was elected to fill the vacancy during the regular scheduled primary election.

What the procedure will be as to naming a successor to Mr. Gibson remains to be seen. As to the county Republican chairman's post, the prominent political leader had planned to retire after the May 19 primary, but no official announcement had yet been made. It is expected that the entire GOP committee will meet to determine its course and to elect a new chairman. Here again, shock has deterred any hasty action.

on the books to match mandated increased spending in the 1959-61 biennium.

He said the push will start next Tuesday or Wednesday. Originally it had been scheduled for today, but the House called off its business for the rest of the week after the sudden death Monday night of Rep. Allen M. Gibson (R-Warren), assistant Republican floor leader.

The stop-gap appropriations would provide 100 millions to pay the salaries of state employees and 2 1/2 millions to continue relief payments in the new biennium.

McCann said the beer and liquor sales tax bill and two or three other measures to be selected at a Democratic caucus on Monday will be put to the test first.

Under consideration are the two bills raising the bank shares tax to four mills, revival of the soft drink tax and the extension of the gross receipts tax on utilities to include gas companies.

McCann reiterated he will need Republican votes to make up the 105 majority needed to pass a bill. Rep. Albert W. Johnson, GOP floor leader, said his members would maintain their solid position at a caucus next Monday against voting any new taxation.

If the tax proposals fail of passage next week, McCann said, then he would call up the remaining items at a later date. That might be the following week, he said.

These bills would include what ever bills out of the first group of five are not called to a showdown next week plus the intangible personal property, tobacco, trading and underground gas storage taxes.

McCann said he would make his appeal for support of the tax programs on the grounds the state still needs an additional $5 million dollars in taxes to make up mandated expenditures in the new biennium starting June 1. The nine tax bills add up to a total of some 210 million dollars in revenue.

Republicans have said they don't want to vote any new taxes until the appropriations committee completes its study of Gov. Lawrence's $1,885,000,000 Budget. Taxes already on the books would raise more than 1 1/2 billion dollars, according to estimates.

Herter, Lloyd and De Murville reviewed prospects for persuading the Soviet Union to offer enough concessions at Geneva to insure a German settlement.

Asst. Secretary of State Andrew Berding, a passenger aboard the plane, told newsmen the three Western foreign policy chiefs mainly discussed strategy.

Bearding said the secret phase of the Geneva conference, due to begin officially Friday afternoon in Geneva, actually will start about the Air Force plane which will fly the three men, along with Gromyko, back to the Swiss city.

Any talks in Washington or aboard the plane will be colored by Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's tough talk in Albania. A quick review of Western strategy appeared certain.

SCOUT REMINDER

call there this evening to conduct the Memorial Ritual of their order. All are asked to meet at the clubhouse at 7:15 to go to the funeral home.

Contributors to Mr. Gibson continue to arrive from many groups and individuals who have been associated with him in business, political and civic fields.

In Harrisburg yesterday, Rep. Albert W. Johnson, Republican floor leader, and Rep. Stephen McCann, Democratic floor leader, spoke of Mr. Gibson as "a quiet man, who never sought the limelight but was content to work in the background to effect compromise on issues on which the two parties disagreed."

The Times-Mirror learned this morning that George I. Bloom, Republican state chairman, will come from Harrisburg tomorrow to attend the Gibson funeral.

In a telegram to the newspaper this morning, Mr. Bloom termed the death of Mr. Gibson "a saddening experience for all his friends and associates here. We have lost a great American and Pennsylvania has lost a dedicated, energetic, and highly competent public servant. I have lost a close personal friend."

In his morning issue today, the Titusville Herald had this to say of Allen M. Gibson: "Our neighbors in Warren county have lost an able representative at Harrisburg. He was well regarded by his constituents and held the respect and esteem of his colleagues on Capitol Hill. His was the sort of enlightened leadership which is sorely needed by his state and his party. Had his years not been suddenly cut short he would have gone much further in the service of the Commonwealth."

Funerals

Strategy Review On Easing Geneva Tension Probable

WASHINGTON (M)—Tough talk by Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev in Albania appeared certain today to force quick Western strategy review of prospects for easing the Geneva conference deadlock on Germany's future.

Such a Western huddle was reported likely after the Western Big Three foreign ministers and West Germany's Chancellor Konrad Adenauer attended John Foster Dulles' funeral this afternoon.

Secretary of State Christian A. Herter, accompanied by British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd and French Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville was to arrive this morning by

Don't Drown --- Learn Basic Fundamentals of Swimming

YMCA has drawn on 75 years of experience to compile some valuable and professional tips on water safety. Bob Hammerbeck, physical director at Warren YMCA said in a special report today. Nearly everyone, young and old, even the handicapped and retarded can enjoy it.

Warren YMCA has proven this fact with their successful program for all ages including retarded and handicapped.

Five to seven thousand Americans drown each year because of simple carelessness that sometimes blinds swimmers to basic safety rules.

First and most important water safety rule is to learn to swim. Classes for boys, girls, women and men are held throughout the year. Ability to swim is fast becoming a necessity and no longer mere sport and refreshing relief from summer heat.

With the advent of skin diving, waterskiing and increase in popularity of fishing and boating, there is no doubt man is beginning to find water a new horizon.

Second important water safety rule is learn to swim well. Many people who go in the water, even strange waters, ignore the need for skilled professional training. Poor swimmer is a constant menace to himself and others. Until people learn basic fundamentals they should stay out of the water.

Recently an advance swim program was inaugurated at the local Y under directorship of Bob Hammerbeck.

Pilot classes for both boys and girls have been completed, classes are now open for everyone who desires advance instruction. Because of the extensive material covered in the program, it is difficult to give a written description of the entire program.

"For further information drop in at the Y and ask about it. Do not call," Y officials urge.

Doctors Repair Man's Face In 6-Hour Ordeal

Corry Journal: The face of a Waterford area man was reconstructed in an emergency six-hour plastic surgery operation Sunday following his injury in a two-car auto crash near Wattsburg.

In critical condition at St. Vincent's Hospital in Erie is Lewis Klus, 32, of R. D. 3, Waterford. He sustained a fractured skull, almost complete fracture of every bone in his face including the roof of his mouth, as well as severe lacerations of the nose and face. In addition, he suffered a badly crushed left hand.

He was injured when his 1958 auto was demolished to the extent of $2,700 by another car which had gone out of control and rolled over directly in front of him about 2 a. m. yesterday.

Corry State Police, who investigated the mishap, said Klus was rushed to St. Vincent's Hospital at Union City where doctors determined the seriousness of his injuries. He was given emergency treatment and transferred by ambulance to St. Vincent's.

When medical personnel there into use, although they weren't was decided to press the new surgery facilities of the hospital saw the extent of his injuries it to be officially opened until today.

Sister Anna Maria, hospital administrator, said the operating room used yesterday is one of seven new operating rooms which replaced the former outmoded surgical facilities.

Each room will operate independently and is individually equipped to handle all types of surgical operations, she said.

Erie plastic surgeon Dr. Jerome Craft, aided by two assisting doctors, Dr. Edward Bajorek and Dr. Prem Tandon, started the delicate six-hour ordeal of reconstruction at 1 p. m.

A temple at El Karnak, Egypt, took 2,000 years to build and is the largest columnar structure ever erected by man.

FAMILY NIGHT EVENT

Highlight of the current popular series of Family Night affairs at the YMCA will be a Hobo Convention on Saturday, June 6, in the YMCA parking lot. Activities will get underway at 6:00 p. m. with a picnic supper and swim, and a good attendance is urged.

POP BOTTLE EXPLODES

An Olean, N. Y. merchant lost the sight of his right eye last week end when it was lacerated by a fragment of glass as a pop bottle exploded in his store. James Bloise, proprietor of a news and novelty store and night telegrapher for Western Union Telegraph Company was reported in good condition at St. Francis Hospital.

INVEST IDLE FUNDS

Erie City Council has agreed to plans of George Brader, finance director, to invest $900,000 of idle city funds in U. S. Treasury Notes. Brader and Frank Burger, deputy finance director, said the move could mean an outstanding interest accumulation in the period before the money is put to its intended use.

PUBLICATION BILL

A Harrisburg dispatch says a bill changing the publication requirements for auditor's reports on county accounts was approved Tuesday by the House Counties Committee. The measure would require the reports to be published in at least two newspapers in the county involved. Under present law, no specific number of papers is mentioned.

NURSES' LEGISLATION

The Pennsylvania Nurses Association favors legislation before the General Assembly to give collective bargaining rights to hospital employees, a dispatch from Harrisburg says. Mary E. Howard, the association's acting executive secretary, said Tuesday that the legislation would guard against strikes or walkouts involving hospital personnel. She warned that Pennsylvania risks the possibility of hospital strikes of non-professional employees by not passing such legislation. She said nurses are pledged not to strike.

Sterilization Program Is Revived in Idaho

BOISE, Idaho (AP)—Idaho is reviving a program which permits the state to sterilize certain mental patients.

State law permits a sterilization operation to be performed with consent of the patient or without his consent if officials obtain a court order.

Dr. Terrell O. Carver, state health administrator, said the state's mental institutions would submit names of candidates for the operation to the State Board of Health, which would hold hearings and review each case.

Krush Issues Warning On U. S. Rocket Bases

MOSCOW (AP)—Nikita Khrushchev says the Soviet Union is ready to set up rocket bases in Albania and Bulgaria to match any the United States may establish in Italy or Greece.

The Soviet Premier, visiting Albania, repeated an earlier Soviet proposal for a ban on nuclear weapons in the Balkan peninsula to make it "a peninsula of peace without any missiles or nuclear weapons."

He warned Italy and Greece that U. S. rockets based on their territory "will attract our rockets as a magnet."
